Envoys Appear In Good Spirits After New Talks

MOSCOW (AP)—The three Western envoys conferred at the Kremlin about two hours today. The United States ambassador, Walter R. Smith, announced further conferences would be held.

Asked if there would be a communique tonight on the results of the East-West discussions, Smith replied: "No, not tonight."

The Westerners conferred with the Soviet Foreign Minister, V. M. Molotov. The British and American representatives met later at the U.S. Embassy.

It was the ninth in a series of meetings with Soviet officials since July 30. Strict official secrecy has been maintained from all four capitals.

An authoritative source indicated this morning that developments were likely today in the negotiations. It was learned in excellent authority Sunday that prospects appeared good for an agreement this week on procedure and the issuance of a four-power communique detailing the nature of the agreement.

The plan is that such a communique would be issued simultaneously in Moscow, Washington, London and Paris.

All the Western envoys appeared in good spirits today.

Protest Expected As Arabs Fire On I.N. Plane Again

JERUSALEM (CP)—Observers today expected a United Nations protest over Arabs firing on a United Nations plane high over the Holy City.

Gen. Aage Lundstroem, chief of staff to Count Folke Bernadotte, U.N. mediator, was expected here today from Cairo.

Jewish and Arab forces in Jerusalem ignored three demands by United Nations observers to withdraw from occupied fighting positions.

Gen. Lundstroem said Sunday night that Jews and Egyptians have agreed to proposals for bringing peace to the neutral areas of Jerusalem. He said the agreement would bring to an end the "ruthless battle" between Jews and Arabs in Jerusalem.

An official source said a group of U.N. observers was fired on by Arabs Sunday when they approached two points in the Holy City contested by Jews and Arabs. There were no casualties.

Victim's Daughter Says Man Innocent

SPOKANE (AP)—The daughter of a man beaten to death 15 years ago, is "still convinced" that Clarence Boggie, who is serving life for the crime, is innocent.

"I didn't think Boggie was guilty when the trial started and was sure he wasn't when the trial was over," Mrs. B. P. Rolfe said Sunday night.

Boggie, a 55-year-old former region lumberjack, has served 15 years in the state penitentiary. Last Friday, the Seattle Times noted States Prison Warden Tom Smith as saying he was convinced of Boggie's innocence.

The next day, one of two Spokane police officers who investigated the case, said he still thought Boggie guilty.

$3,000,000 Loss To Tomato Crops In East From Heat

TORONTO (CP)—Loss to the 1948 tomato crop in Ontario last week's record-breaking heat wave is estimated at almost $3,000,000, Agriculture Minister Kennedy announced today.

"Only 60 per cent of the tomato crop will be harvested this year," Mr. Kennedy said. Prior to the heat wave the crop was expected to yield growers about $7,000,000.

Only rain can prevent further damage to fruit and vegetable crops. A spokesman for a large local wholesale produce firm estimated that nearly 50 per cent of the expected fruit and vegetable production would not reach the market.

Rainfall was isolated to small districts of southern Ontario, but no general rain was in sight. Cooler temperatures today, however, are expected to restrain damage by the blistering heat.

Great Crowd Swelters At Toronto Exhibition

Temperatures took a welcome downward swing in Ontario and other parts of central Canada today as a result of cool air moving from the north. It was not so pleasant, however, when the above picture was taken in front of the main bandshell at the Canadian National Exhibition in Toronto. A sea of newspapers covered heads of thousands as they sat in the sunlight and the mercury hovered near the 100-degree mark.

H.B.C. Plans New $2,000,000 Store Addition To Cope With Business

Plans for the construction of a $2,000,000 addition to the Hudson's Bay Company store, on Douglas Street were made known Sunday by Sir Patrick Ashley Cooper, governor of the Hudson's Bay Company, while here on a brief visit to confer with C. N. Chubb, Victoria store manager.

"Plans and drawings by our architects in Winnipeg are now ready and I have authorized immediate application to the city for a building permit and the submission of the plans to the contractors for tender, in the expectation construction can start in a few weeks' time," Sir Patrick said.

The addition will be about half the size of the present store and will add about 75,000 square feet to the area of the building.

"We will increase our space by about 50 per cent," Sir Patrick said. "When the work is completed, we will have a self-contained unit which will enable us to provide better service to the people of this city."

The addition will be made on what is now the rear of the store, and will be built on part of the land presently used for parking. More property at the back of the store has recently been purchased by the company, however, to give customers ample parking space, he said.

The exterior appearance of the addition will conform to that of the existing building. All windows, both in the addition and the present building, will be of latest design and all entrances to the building will be improved with the introduction of all-glass doors.

Present elevators in the store will be done away with and two modern elevators and an escalator system will be installed in the addition. The escalators will be the first on Vancouver Island.

The addition will be four stories above the ground, the same height as the existing building, and will contain one floor underground, giving five floors of store space.

When the job is completed, Sir Patrick promised, the Hudson's Bay store here will be "the last word in stores and one of the most up-to-date in Canada."

"Our program is based on our faith in the present and future of Victoria and Vancouver Island," Sir Patrick said. "We have been here over a century. Fort Victoria having been established in 1843, we might rightly say that the Hudson's Bay Company founded our city," Sir Patrick told newsmen in an interview at the Empress Hotel.

"In those hundred years we have grown with Victoria and have played our part in its development by providing shopping facilities worthy of the community," he said. "This extension is another practical example of our policy to remain in the forefront and to contribute our share to the pride of the communities we serve."

Spy Probe Asks Leader Of Reds In U.S. Guarded

NEW YORK (AP)—A House of Representatives Un-American Activities subcommittee member today recommended contempt charges for J. Peters, described as director of an "elite group" of Communists in the United States government.

Rep. Richard Nixon (Rep.-Calif.), the member, said Peters should be cited for contempt of Congress for refusal to answer questions as to his alleged Communist affiliations.

A few minutes earlier, Whitaker Chambers, confronting Peters in a federal building hearing room, said the witness was "director of an underground spy apparatus" operating within the federal government beginning in 1934.

Chambers, admitted former Communist who now is a senior editor of Time magazine, previously had testified in Washington that Peters headed a Communist underground in this country.

Robert E. Stripling, chief investigator for the House committee, asked Peters: "Did you serve as the representative of the Communist Party International of the Communist Party?"

REFUSES TO ANSWER

Peters replied: "I decline to answer . . . on the ground, that an answer might tend to incriminate and degrade me."

Similar answers were made to questions as to whether he was an official or a member of the Communist Party in the United States.

Earlier the House Committee had served a subpoena on Peters, calling for him to attend today's hearing.

The House Committee had been trying to find Peters for months but was unable to do so until the immigration service said he would be ordered to appear here today.

Peters' name has figured in the sensational row between Chambers, a prime witness in the House Committee's probe of alleged Communist infiltration into the federal government, and Alger Hiss, former high State Department official.

Victorian Lands 65-Pound Tye; Biggest Of Year

Victoria J. A. Carmichael, of the B.C. Public Utilities Commission, is leading the parade for the coveted crown of "Tye Man of 1948" at Campbell River's famous sport-fishing grounds as a result of the 65-pound husky he reeled in Sunday.

Mr. Carmichael was fishing in the Canadian Legion tye derby and the catch won him first prize. It is the biggest tye reeled in by a Tye Club member this year and if the weight is not beaten he will win the tye crown.

Hundreds of persons stopped at Roger Monteth's Fort Street store during the day to look at the monster tye, which gave the Victorian a long fight before he finally boated it.

The catch is not a Campbell River record.

100,000 Sit Down At Giant Picnic

ONTARIO, Calif. (AP)—They're still talking here today about the world's biggest picnic, at which more than 100,000 people feasted at a two-mile-long table.

The occasion was the first all-states picnic since the war. The giant gastronomic affair was held Saturday. The eating was done on a super king-size table, stretched along a parkway in the centre of tree-shaded Euclid Avenue.

In addition to the 48 states, Canada, Alaska and Hawaii were represented.

N.W.A. Transport With 36 Aboard Hits Mountain

WINONA, Minn. (AP)—A human chain of 100 men stationed on a precipitous and rocky slope today started bringing out the mangled bodies of 26 persons from the crash site of a Northwest Airlines plane. The bodies of 10 others were carried out Sunday night.

The 36 persons, including two Canadians, died as the Chicago-Minneapolis bound airliner, raked by a severe storm, crashed into a heavily-wooded Mississippi River bluff in Wisconsin near here late Sunday.

The bulk of the wreckage settled 150 feet down a 500-foot precipitous slope, made slippery by heavy rains Sunday night.

Pieces of wreckage that were lifted to remove the bodies were carefully inspected and logged by a civil aeronautics board and Civil Aeronautics Administration officials who are trying to determine if any structural defects might have brought about the crash during the storm.

The Canadian victims were listed by the air line company's Chicago office as C. C. Plummer and his wife of Flin Flon, Man.

E. W. Head, who was returning to Minneapolis from Toronto, missed the plane at Chicago although he was listed as a passenger.

The body of one man, unidentified, was found early today 1,000 feet from the main part of the wreckage. The body was strapped with a safety belt in a seat. Authorities said they believed other bodies had been similarly catapulted into the heavily-wooded area.

Crashed In Thunderstorm

The crash occurred between Winona and Fountain City, Wis., on the Wisconsin side of the river, during the height of the severe electrical and rainstorm.

The plane was one of the airlines' newer Martin 2-0-2 ships and was bound for Minneapolis from Chicago with 33 passengers and three crew members. It left Chicago at 3:50 p.m. C.D.T.

A crash witness told the coroner he saw the plane fall into the ravine on Sutter's Ridge after lightning had shattered a wing.

Howard Rackow, a farmer living on Perry Island in the Mississippi River, told the coroner "there was a flash of lightning. It struck the plane. A part of a wing fell off and the ship started down."

Bits of wreckage were scattered over a wide area. Some of it was found in a ball park in Winona, seven miles away.

East U.S. Coast Awaits Blow; Hurricane Nears

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Hurricane warnings were ordered hoisted from Wilmington, N.C., to Cape Hatteras, N.C., at 5 a.m., E.D.T. today.

At the same time, northeast storm warnings were ordered displayed north of Cape Hatteras to the Virginia Capes and northwest storm warnings south of Wilmington to Charleston, S.C.

A violent tropical hurricane, with winds up to 120 miles an hour, was expected to reach the North Carolina coastline early tonight.

"This is an emergency, warn all interests," the federal storm warning service said in an advisory message.

Residents along the North Carolina coastline were warned winds would begin increasing early today, that they would reach gale force by mid-afternoon and hurricane force early tonight.

At 5 a.m., the raging tropical storm was about 250 miles southeast of Wilmington, N.C. It was moving north-northwestward about 10 or 12 miles an hour, and federal forecasters predicted it would pick up an accelerated forward movement during the day.

Schuman, Ramadier Both Seek New French Cabinet

PARIS (AP)—Robert Schuman, out of office as French Premier for 32 days, said today he would try to form a new cabinet.

"But," the balding Alsatian said as he left President Vincent Auriol's palace shortly after midnight, "I have adopted the same attitude as M. Ramadier. I am going to examine the situation first."

Ramadier, Schuman's predecessor as Premier, spent all Sunday checking over his chances to form a new cabinet. He admitted at midnight he had been unable to convince either himself or French political leaders he was the man.

Political observers believed that if Schuman fails, Marie will get another chance.

France has been without a government since early Saturday, when Premier Andre Marie resigned as a result of Socialist disagreement with wage and price moves planned by his Finance Minister, Paul Reynaud.

Marie, a Radical Socialist (Conservative), had been Premier one month. Before him, Schuman, a member of the Mouvement Republicain Populaire (moderate), held the job eight months. Ramadier, a Socialist who preceded Schuman, held office 10 months although he reshuffled his cabinet once.

Political observers believed that if Schuman fails, Marie will get another chance.

Fraser River Rises Five Feet In Week

VANCOUVER (CP)—Heavy rains in the drainage basin of the Fraser River have caused the river to rise five feet in the last week.

A rise of more than a foot was recorded in the 24 hours up to 9 a.m. today.

At Agassiz, 75 miles east of here, suspension of the Rosedale-Agassiz ferry was threatened. Forty feet of the approach was flooded.

Hatzic Prairie was hit for the third time this year. Although bridged by both the railway and the highway, the gap torn in the dyke by the spring floods is still open, and the area is at the mercy of the river.

The waterfront picture became much more difficult late Friday when longshore union spokesmen termed the latest employer proposals "completely unacceptable."

They reaffirmed that their coastwise strike called for next Thursday, when an 80-day government injunction expires, would come off on schedule.

But Robert Mayer, spokesman for the employers, still maintained the outlook was "optimistic."

Thieves Get Cash From City Cafe; Other Robberies

A considerable amount of money was netted by burglars who broke into the Olympia Cafe, 732 Yates Street, during the week-end, city police reported this morning.

Peter Rapanos, proprietor, would not reveal the amount of his loss, but indicated it was considerable.

Doris Hubin, 1128 Caledonia Avenue, a waitress, discovered the entry when she arrived for work at 6.30, and informed police. Constables Ray Maitland and James Strong attended.

Miss Hubin found a drawer, which had contained receipts and cash, lying on the floor. Beside it was a punch and cleaver. Entry was made through a kitchen window. Detectives Fearon Woodburn and Maurice Wilkinson are making investigations.

The cash register, which contained money, was left untouched. The drawer was located directly beneath it.

Constable D. Grant, checking premises on his beat this morning at 5.30, found where thieves had been working to get into Les Palmer's clothing store at 714 View Street. A hole had been cut through the screen door at the rear to enable release of the catch. There was evidence of jimmy marks to indicate work had been commenced to get the main door open. It is believed the thieves were scared off.

Another week-end robbery took place at 826 Caledonia Avenue. There burglars escaped with $50 owned by Hong Tim.

'Complete Look'—Victorian Touch Highlight Fashions

By CANADIAN PRESS

Struggling for recognition on the troubled fashion front is the "complete look." But no large controversy like that which greeted the "new look" is anticipated for this version of good grooming.

A Canadian Press survey shows that women across the Dominion likely will purchase with the thought that full accessories are what fashion experts decree this fall.

Hats, gloves and purses are indicated for all occasions. Color teamwork in these accessories, a long-established rule, is again in focus this fall.

This "completely-dressed" appearance will be seen with a Victorian touch in many places. Toronto stores predict that evening elegance will be applied to day-time wear. It is reflected in moderate back fullness and the mid-Victorian richness of color and material.

August blacks, long and slim in front with draped back, are being shown in most shops across Canada, but the big autumn clothing item is a suit. The majority Canadian-made, these suits feature slender skirts and long jackets, the direct opposite to last year's ballerina silhouette which only flattered youthful figures.

Rounded shoulders and soft curving lines around the hips and pockets make these suits a combination of the tailored and the dressy. They will be worn about 11 to 12 inches from the floor.

Green, in all its rich Victorian shades, is the predominate fall color.

Despite Paris suggestions that skirts are getting shorter, they still cover all but about nine to 12 inches of the Canadian woman's legs. But to make up the difference, figures promise to be more evident as the silhouette slims to more normal and flattering proportions.

Gone are the bulky yardage and swirling skirts of last fall and winter. The exception is in evening gowns which often employ an extravagance of satins, brocade and taffeta done up in mid-Victorian style.

The low-vamp shoe with closed toe is vying for attention with the single or double ankle strap variety in Windsor, Ont.

The early fall picture in Winnipeg highlights black lamb and muskrat full-backed fur coats. Fur pieces are often daring with short-haired furs wrought in unusual combinations. Felt hats in Winnipeg run to the large and sometimes eccentric line.

Calgary shops are filled with classic-lined dresses, many with a drape, loop or bustle in the back.

one of three Chinese occupants of the premises.

Entry was gained by jimmying a bathroom window. Money was held in a shaving lotion box locked in a suitcase, which was forced open. Two trunks belonging to Tom Yun were forced open but nothing was taken from them.

J. Kirk, Room 119 Y.M.C.A., reported to police a $100 camera and six golf balls were stolen from his car while parked off View Street between last night and this morning. Door of the vehicle was forced open.

Australian Musician Patents Machine

MELBOURNE, Australia (CP)—An Australian musician has invented and patented a machine that types a musical score almost as fast as it can be sung.

The inventor is Murray Parker, 31, of the Australian Broadcasting Commission's variety music library at Melbourne.

The machine is about three feet wide, stands two feet high and has two keyboards. One has 42 keys for letters and music symbols and the other has 27 keys for adjusting the paper. It can type forward, backwards, vertically or horizontally.

WORKED EIGHT YEARS

Parker spent eight years perfecting his machine after tiring of copying music by hand. It writes words to the music in clear Gothic type.

"In the machine I have made the original is machine-done in a photogenic black and white," Parker told a reporter. "Further, 10 copies can be taken at one stroke and if a silk stencil is used 5,000 copies can be run off."

Parker said he first devised a set of standards not unlike a set of typewriter standards and stuck to them.

A music bureau at Melbourne is using the invention to turn out scores ranging from Liszt rhapsodies to boogie-woogie.

Lake Seamen May Invoke New Labor Code In Dispute

OTTAWA (CP)—Early reopening of the Great Lakes shipping dispute before the federal government's new labor board was forecast in official quarters today.

Powers of the new body in directing management to undertake collective bargaining extend beyond that of the old Wartime Labor Relations Board, and it appeared these would be invoked in behalf of the Canadian Seamen's Union (T.L.C.) in the first major action before the board.

The body—the Canada Labor Relations Board—will come into power Wednesday with the proclamation of the federal labor code.

According to officials here, the board has plenty of power to reopen the case of the C.S.U. versus four lake shipping companies who have refused to deal with that union on the claim that its leadership is Communist-dominated.

It was indicated the first move likely would be made by the union.

The child's blind mother, Mrs. Marion MacDonald (dark glasses) and the father, Gordon MacDonald (right), were arrested and charged with child neglect. 6 U.B.C. Students Make Los Angeles In Ancient Auto

LOS ANGELES (AP)—It took them three weeks from Vancouver, but six University of British Columbia students arrived here Sunday in a 1915 12-passenger automobile.

Eight days were spent waiting for new inner tubes, they reported, and they had 40 flat tires, including four blowouts. They finally vulcanized 21-inch tubes to fit the 27-inch wheels.

Harvey Richardson, owner of the car, started out for Milwaukee by way of Los Angeles to exhibit his machine at a showing of ancient horseless carriages.

The show was held while they were en route here. The six took turns driving—two to a shift. One man steers and another pumps gasoline from tank to carburetor.

The engine has eight cylinders, but one was out of commission when the lumbering car arrived here. Top speed was 18 miles an hour.

Accompanying Richardson are Jim Duprau and Dean Corke of Victoria, and Arthur Harris, John Bell and George Jenvey of Vancouver.

Accident Victim Dies In Hospital

Victim of an accident Friday evening, John Dunan, 61, of 227 Ontario Street, passed away in Jubilee Hospital this morning at 6.40, city police report. This was the eighth traffic death in Victoria and district this year.

An inquest will be held at Hayward's B.C. Funeral Parlor tomorrow at 10 by Dr. E. C. Hart.

Dunan, a pedestrian, suffered a skull injury, when he met a car driven by David A. Nairne, 2748 Prior Street, in collision while crossing the intersection of Government and Yates Street.

East's Week-Long Heat Wave At End

TORONTO (CP)—Temperatures nosedived in central Canada today after cool air from the north had put an end to the week-long heat wave, when the mercury nudged the 100-degree mark.

Forecasters said today's maximum in most parts of southern Ontario and Quebec would be 10 to 15 degrees cooler than Saturday's peak. In such places as the Lake St. Clair, Detroit River district that would put today's top in the 80s.

"Seasonable afternoon temperatures" was what the weather men promised for today, a forecast welcomed by millions.

Mayorless Quebec Town To Take Vote

MANIWAKI, Que. (CP)—After 46 days without a municipal government, this pulp and paper town will elect a new mayor Sept. 20, but the former municipal head won't run for re-election.

J. C. Nadon, 49, resigned Aug. 4 as mayor of Maniwaki, 100 miles north of Ottawa. His action followed defeat as Liberal candidate in the Quebec provincial election July 28, won by the Union Nationale government.

He said in an interview he would have "nothing to do with Premier Duplessis' dictatorial powers."

"I stood as Liberal candidate in Gatineau County," he added. "I was defeated by Gerard Desjardins, Mr. Duplessis' man, but I have nothing against him."

"But I will not run for mayor in Maniwaki as long as Mr. Duplessis is in office. He does not care to give benefits to the province. All he wants is power."

When Mr. Nadon resigned, three of his councillors walked out with him. They were Dr. R. Leduc, Vernon Bratten and Ferdinand Mercier. Only three councillors remained, one less than a quorum.

Row Over Religion Cause Of Shooting

MOJAVE, Calif. (AP)—A U.S. army sergeant lies critically wounded and his two small sons are dead as the aftermath of a family argument over religion.

Sgt. Samuel Ray Adams, 31, shot and killed his sons Sunday and then critically wounded himself with a .38 calibre revolver, Deputy Sheriff Al Strasner reported.

Adams' pretty wife, Peggy Jo, told Strasner the tragedy occurred after a heated discussion in their hut home on which Sunday school the youngsters should attend. Her husband had been drinking, she told the deputy.

Pilgrims From U.S. Jeered At In Rome

ROME (AP)—Communists shouted insults and trampled cigarettes tossed to Italians by Roman Catholic pilgrims from the United States at Genoa, members of the party said today.

"Go back to America where you came from," one pilgrim said he was told.

The 535 Roman Catholics, mostly from New England and including many high churchmen, arrived Saturday from France. The incidents occurred in the Genoa railroad station last Friday.

The pilgrims will be received by the Pope at his summer residence at Castel Gandolfo Wednesday.

Says He Landed Government Job While Red Agent

WASHINGTON (AP)—The congressional spy hunt shifted to New York today for Whittaker Chambers' own story of having landed a government job while drawing pay as a Communist agent.

The new development was unfolded by Chambers himself in secret testimony before the House of Representatives Un-American Activities Committee.

It led Rep. Richard Nixon (Rep., Calif.) to claim that for the first time the committee now has a "definite, probable link" between the pre-war Red underground described by Chambers—a senior editor of Time magazine—and the wartime Russian spy activities related by Elizabeth T. Bentley.

Both Chambers and Miss Bentley have told of serving as Communist couriers. But there was a five-year gap from the time Chambers said he quit the party in 1937 until the Vassar graduate claims she began her spy ring work.

However, Nixon, who summoned reporters to Capitol Hill to hear the latest turn of events, said Chambers got his government job from two people Miss Bentley accused.

Youngsters Drive Car; Hit Another

VANCOUVER (CP)—Two children from Vancouver's Kerrisdale district are in for an official scoring from police.

Saturday the 14-year-old boy and his nine-year-old sister made off with their father's car. The little girl took the wheel.

Everything was fine, they said, until the girl's foot slipped from the brake pedal and the car rolled into another automobile, parked nearby.

The father of the children has asked police to deliver an official scolding because, he says, the 14-year-old is always taking the car to give the nine-year-old some driving lessons.

The fire partially destroyed the B.C. Forests Products Ltd. bunkhouse, taking two lives and injuring 13 others.

Church Council Names 6 Presidents

AMSTERDAM (AP)—Most Rev. Dr. Geoffrey Fisher, Archbishop of Canterbury, today was unanimously elected one of the six presidents of the World Council of Churches.

The other five candidates for the multiple office of president also were elected unanimously.

While the constitution of the provisional committee that set up the World Council called for five presidents, it was decided at the last minute to nominate six, the additional one to represent the younger churches. This nominee is Dr. T. C. Chao, dean of the school of religion of Yenching University, Peiping, China.

The other four presidents are Dr. G. Bromley Oxnam, New York, Bishop of the Methodist Church, United States; Pasteur Marc Boegner of the Reformed Church of France, Paris; the Archbishop of Thyateira, Greece, Dr. S. Germanos; and the Archbishop of Upsala, Sweden, Dr. Erling Eidem.

The deal includes purchase by the employees of the old Queen's Hotel property here, formerly owned by Mr. Mason. Plans call for the erection of a two-story building to house the newspaper. Yugoslav Girl Backs Out Of Trip; 'Rescued' By Boy

WINDSOR, Ont. (CP)—Vera Vujasin, 16, who was to have sailed for Yugoslavia Saturday with her widowed mother and sister, is back in Windsor today, looking for a job.

She returned Sunday with Bronco, youthful member of the Windsor "Sugar Bowl Gang," who was sent to Montreal last Friday to bring her back to the city.

Vera and Bronco told members of the "gang" Sunday that she didn't want to make the trip to Yugoslavia and "just wasn't aboard the Radnik" when it sailed with her mother, Mrs. Salka Vujasin, and her sister, Naida, 17. She said she told her mother of her plans Saturday morning.

Mrs. Vujasin had nothing to say of her daughters' disappearance when sailing time approached. Naida said no one was forcing her to make the trip and thought it would be an adventure. Vera left Windsor with her mother and sister last Tuesday, en route to Yugoslavia, and at Cornwall, Ont., sent a card to Windsor friends that she would return if they sent someone after her.

Bronco was sent by plane to Montreal, on funds raised by members of the "Sugar Bowl Gang."

When a group of about a dozen Yugoslavs left Windsor for their homeland, it was explained the two Vujasin girls were not enthusiastic about it, that they cried mother had won them over when discussing the trip. Their tears and threats, it was said.

Vera intends to live with a girl friend in Windsor and to support herself by going to work.

ONLY ONE INTERPRETATION?

WE ARE TOLD BY SOME OBSERVERS close to the scene that the French government of Andre Marie sidestepped a showdown with Gen. Charles de Gaulle by postponing the local elections due in October. A test at that time, followers of the liberation hero contend, would give them sufficient strength to force a general election in the near future. Rumors of the possibility of such an election have been considerably strengthened by the subsequent defeat of the Marie cabinet and the apparent difficulties in creating a successor.

The government's action is reportedly seen by many French newspapers in the light in which it was pictured by the London Spectator as a "shamefaced decision", and one which "even in the context of French politics is thoroughly disgraceful."

The criticism is strong. The implication is that members of the government were more interested in holding their jobs than they were in reflecting the will of the French people. But is the decision open only to this vernal interpretation? Assuming that supporters of de Gaulle are correct in believing that elections would bring them widespread success and lead to their earlier acquisition of power, what would be the result? Would it not tend to create a wider schism among the French people, driving the moderates from a middle road of reasonable compromise into sharply antagonistic camps of the right or left?

Such an eventuality, with the de Gaulleists in control, would probably force the Communists underground, after civil strife. But would it accomplish for France the creation of an abidingly stable government without too great a surrender of its present democratic machinery? The hero of the French liberation has made abundantly clear his belief that the chief of state should be clothed with greater executive authority. How far he might seek to press that point were he in authority is an open question. Certainly the available emergency powers were adequate for Robert Schuman to fight an earlier Communist strike wave—and win—without requiring a constitutional change that, to some, might smack of a move toward dictatorship.

Under these considerations, it is fair to consider the decision of the authorities in France to postpone the elections purely as evidence of self-interest? Admittedly, the combustibles of civil disorder are piled high. But there are limits to the premium which should be charged for fire protection. Obviously, the people must retain their right to choose the representatives they want. But timing is an important factor in the avoidance of anything that might be considered a hysterical swing at the polls.

BECAUSE THREE YEARS HAVE elapsed since the end of the Second World War it would seem that it is time for men and women whose voices carry considerable weight with those who are charged with the conduct of international affairs to think carefully before expressing themselves for publication. We are moved to voice this contention in the light of one particular phrase which Dr. Hewlett Johnson—popularly known as the "Red Dean" of Canterbury—employed in his reaction to Washington's refusal to give him permission to enter the United States for a speaking tour sponsored by the National Council of American-Soviet Friendship.

Rightly or wrongly, wisely or unwisely, the organization in question is on the list of "subversive" agencies which the United States Attorney-General has compiled. No outsider with average commonsense will challenge our neighbor's right to decide for herself what type of behaviour is or is not inimical to her national security or the peace and contentment of her citizens. What strikes us as particularly unfortunate, therefore, is that Dr. Johnson announced in London the other day that he would visit the United States within three years, "when Henry Wallace is President, as I think he is sure to be."

Nothing, of course, would prevent the "Red Dean" from getting a visa to enter the neighboring republic in the ordinary way as a visitor; but in the present case the stumbling block is "the auspices" under which he had intended to make the proposed tour. Apart from the legalistic and political considerations, however, it is not very astute of Dr. Johnson to set a date three years hence—when "Henry Wallace is President"—for his visit. The prelate of Canterbury must know that unless the former Vice-President of the United States enters the White House after next Nov. 2, he will not have another chance until the late fall of 1952.

ALTERATIONS NOT ENOUGH

THIS WEEK A SPECIAL COMMITTEE, headed by Ald. D. D. McTavish, is scheduled to begin the study of a project to alter the City Hall, presumably with a view to renting the ground floor for stores. The purpose of the proposal, as we understand it, is to eliminate the "dead" spot on one of Victoria's more important business streets, and to create accommodation which will be revenue-producing to the city. The question arises, however, as to what the city will have when, and if, the work is done.

The City Hall itself has outlived its usefulness. Any major improvement can be undertaken only at considerable expense. In the opinion of many, the money could be used to better advantage in the construction of an entirely new building. It is conceivable that existing rental rates would return sufficient funds to compensate for the alterations required to house commercial establishments. But the City Hall would be basically the same old structure, subject to the same defects which are now apparent. Arguments may be raised that present construction costs make the prospect of a new building remote. The same costs, of course, would apply to alterations.

Furthermore, if the Hall lacks adequate space for present needs—and we have heard that argument advanced in the case for a new building—how would it be improved by reducing what accommodation already exists by setting aside ground floor footage for stores? Admittedly, such a development would eliminate one of the commercial "dead" spots on Douglas Street, but it would not abolish that condition in the immediate neighborhood.

Far be it from us to discount enterprise on the part of the City Council or any of its committees. But is expenditure justified on the old brick building which has served its purpose and must, in the course of the next few years, be replaced? Would not any available funds, raised by by-law or levy, be more economically used if they were held as a nucleus for the sum which eventually will be required to give Victoria a City Hall in keeping with the dignity of this capital?

SECTIONAL SQUABBLES

MUCH IS BEING SAID AND WRITTEN about the necessity of building a trans-Canada highway worthy of the name. We have discussed the matter in these columns on several occasions. It should be possible for a Canadian to travel by road in relative comfort from the Pacific to the Atlantic seaboard without finding it preferable to pass through parts of our southern neighbor's territory.

Apart from the fact that one or two newspapers which have no love for the King government are demanding more action and less talk in respect of this project—and we subscribe to this general contention—sight should not be lost of the fact that various influential agencies and organizations also are using much argument in support of the route such a highway should take through the difficult engineering section from the Alberta boundary to the Pacific Coast. On this aspect of the controversy, by the way, the following comments in the Ottawa Journal throw some light:

"Mr. MacKinnon (Minister of National Resources) favors referring the question to a commission of engineers and others to study construction problems and route. That might be a wise step—if only there could be any assurance that its recommendations would put an end to the controversy between those who want the road to follow the international border through the west and those who would favor a northern route. That argument has been a factor in delaying the work, because there never has been a plan offered which was acceptable to everybody."

We are not suggesting that our Ottawa contemporary's observations should be used by Dominion authorities as an excuse for dilatoriness. We have merely quoted it to explain some of the difficulties encountered by the federal authorities when they appear to be in the mood to be impressed by the general desire for this national thoroughfare. And so long as there are sectional demands, with "caravans" for this route and "caravans" for that route emphasizing such basic differences in opinion, so may responsible ministers at Ottawa hesitate to recommend to Parliament the expenditures involved.

EVENING CLASSES

THE DECISION OF VICTORIA COLLEGE authorities to conduct evening classes open to the general public, successful attendance at which will count toward an academic degree, should raise to a still higher point the value of the institution to this community. Regular students, of course, will continue to attend the day-time lectures, but an opportunity will now be afforded other residents, whose work does not permit full registration, to gain the benefits of advanced courses. Among these will be school teachers who seek to better their academic standing, graduate students who wish to continue their studies in courses for which they previously did not have the time, and a large number of citizens who wish to obtain a grounding in mathematics, science, languages, economics or other subjects, without the intention of qualifying for a degree.

The standards of the local college, which is affiliated with the University of British Columbia, are such as to inspire respect in educational circles anywhere on this continent. Although registration may be expected to decline somewhat from the peak established in the immediate postwar years, enrolment has grown steadily since its inception until the college today, in its new quarters in the Normal School building, has achieved a position of first importance in our educational system. The inauguration of evening classes will enhance that position, and broaden the appeal for that popular support to which the institution is fully entitled.

NOTES

Many a big shot would still be a little squirt if he hadn't learned to keep still when he had nothing to say.

The chief basic cause of domestic problems is that no degree of prosperity can satisfy the Joneses if the Smiths have more.

Political Comparison

By GRAHAM HUTTON in London Calling THE PARTY CONVENTIONS at Philadelphia—and our post-war British political developments—make me think that the British and American political systems may well be getting farther apart, becoming more unlike rather than more alike. If so, that is going to be an important influence on the future of Anglo-American relations, and, therefore, on the future of the western world.

American and British political systems were never alike. The founding fathers deliberately combined what they thought was the best of the French and British constitutions in 1787. They were against a monarchy, so they set up a president with his own selected government; a legislative called Congress; and a Supreme Court to watch over and interpret the written constitution.

THESE THREE POWERS of American government—executive, legislative, and judiciary—were not only separated in their everyday work, but they were also separated by their methods of election or appointment. The constitution was deliberately made very hard to change by its founding fathers; so, in a way, the domestic American scene has remained somewhat conservative.

Now look at our British domestic political system. It is quite unrecognizable from what it was 100 years ago—and as for what it was 150 years ago, it might as well be prehistoric. To begin with, we have no written constitution; no Supreme Court; single-party government is supreme here. Again, 100 years ago, only about one-tenth of adult British men—men not women—had the vote. Today, everyone in Britain, men and women, has the vote from the age of 21.

THEN OUR PARTIES have utterly changed. Only thirty-five years ago, in 1913, we had two parties: the Liberals, descendants of the old Whigs, who were the majority and formed the Government; and, opposing them, the Conservatives, descendants of the old Tories. True, there were two or three Members of Parliament out of some 600 who called themselves a Labor Party; but they were rather a joke.

Today, out of some 630 Members of Parliament, 400—two-thirds, roughly—are Labor Party—that is, Socialists—representing just under one-half of the electors who voted in 1945. Of the rest 200 are Conservative. In the mist, at the edges, are ten members, the bare remnants of the old Liberal Party; two members of the Communist Party; and a handful of Independents, most of whom represent the British university seats which the Labor Government is now in process of abolishing.

NOW LOOK AT THE composition of our political parties. In America, a man is generally a Democrat or Republican from birth; he takes in his party politics at his mother's knee, or in his district, or from his father and his father's friends. Whole families are either Democrat or Republican for generations.

In Britain, people switch between parties more—or used to. British party politics are more mixed up today, socially. For instance, Americans might expect all the working people, wage-earners, to belong to the Socialist, or Labor Party. Well, they do not. Indeed, under one-half of the electorate voted Socialist three years ago; yet wage-earners and their families account for four-fifths of the population. Again, British politics are decided nowadays by a majority of the electors who refuse to belong, as dues-paying members, to any party.

FOR EXAMPLE, the Socialists admit to having less than 5,000,000 members in Britain, though more than twice as many people voted Socialist, and the total electorate is as many as 35,000,000 today. It is the same with the Conservatives, too. Their members are few.

Both parties angle for a huge, floating vote which is unattached and swings to and fro from election to election, every five years.

ONLY A HOSTILE VOTE can throw out the Government in those five years; and in the past generation, too, British political parties have become more and more drilled and disciplined to vote in the right lobbies, and to say and do what they are told to by their respective party whips.

And then there is another big difference in British party politics. Both Socialists and Conservatives very largely share a belief in, and support for, big public boards, public enterprise, and—above all—monopolies for monopolies' sake. Do not be misled into thinking that Mr. Churchill's Conservatives oppose monopoly, or public or State enterprise, or State social-welfare schemes of the boldest kind, just because they are called the opposition to the Socialists.

SO WHAT REALLY rules Britain's political fortunes and future today is what has ruled them all along, namely, the mood, emotions, feelings, hopes, fears, attitudes—indeed, hardly ever the real brain thoughts—of a great, floating mass of British voters—quite 20,000,000 of them, out of 35,000,000 altogether—and that is a far greater proportion than the floating vote in America.

In short, it is the core, the backbone of the British people, who will not join any political party. And it is because no one has been able to drill and drag them yet, because they are not in trade unions or other associations under officials, that Britain is still a real democracy, and that no party politician here knows what is likely to happen in 1950, and that Britain's future still lies in the hands of millions of ordinary Britons themselves.

Watching The American Nimrods

'Important To Everybody'

By CARL MATSON

EDITOR'S NOTE: Babe Ruth died of cancer after years of a conspiracy of silence by his friends and family. His passing focusses interest on the secrecy which time and custom have wrapped around the deadly killer.

Three days before Ruth died, another man sat down to his typewriter in Cleveland, O., and typed a message to his friends and townsmen, which he captioned "Strictly Personal But Important to Everybody."

In that message, carried in the Cleveland Press editorial columns for which he wrote, Carl Matson said that he had cancer. Because the editors of NEA Service and this newspaper believe that his message is "important to everybody" as a courageous step in the battle against cancer, we present it as carried on the editorial page of the Press.

I'VE DECIDED to write a piece which will be quite shocking to some people. But it shouldn't be.

I write it not just to be shocking, although I'm willing to be that in a good cause, I'm writing it because I think it's time that some history be made by being as frank as I'm going to be here today.

Anything anybody can do to free the human race from terrifying and crippling bondage to ancient fears, should be done. To that end I aim to make my contribution.

I was told the other day that the back injury which has been bothering me for months, involves a malignancy. In plain language, my friends, that of course means cancer. This wasn't a complete surprise to me, by any means, but neither was it good news. It was staggeringly bad news, and would be to anyone.

But I didn't lose any time lying on the floor. I made arrangements to get the best treatment I could. There's plenty of wonderful treatment available in this country.

But let's skip the therapy, because this isn't a case discussion of the writer's back ailment. I'll work that out with the doctors.

NO HUSH-HUSH

What I want to do is to strike a blow against this mysterious, paralyzing hush-hush that surrounds every case of cancer. I don't want anybody having to ask about me, "Does he know what he's got? Has he been told?" Yes, I've been told and I know.

Also I don't want good friends of mine feeling cautious and apprehensive about talking to me about anything and everything, including cancer. If my life on earth must be foreshortened—as certainly seems possible at this moment—I want every particle that's left of it wide open and uninhibited to the freest intercourse I know with all good souls.

I think these "whispering campaigns" about cases of cancer—friendly and considerate as they may be intended—are deadly destroyers of the human spirit. They make the hard fact of cancer doubly hard. I want none of them.

What I'm doing here today has been a matter of resolution ever since I've thought about this subject. And repeated cases, where fine people have been put behind the "iron curtain" long before their time, have hardened my resolution.

DESOLATE SILENCE

For instance, I have thought about a husband and wife, very close and dear to each other, who nevertheless lived together for six months throughout the death throes of her cancer, without the consolation of simple candor. They kept a desolate silence between them about her illness, secretly asking each about the other, "Does she know? Does he know?" What tragic nonsense!

I will, have none of it, and I want my friends to have none of it.

If they want to think of me from time to time as a man with a cancer, OK. The doctors might fool them, at that, but it's the fact, subject to further notice, and let's face up to it.

Meanwhile, there's so much to be done in this world, so much to think about, write about, and talk about, that it's an infernal nuisance to be laid up for repairs even for a short time.

Her Words Have Echoed For Us

By COL. E. A. LOFTUS in the P.L.A. Monthly

IT WAS AT NOON on Aug. 8, 1588, that a great procession was winding along the marsh road leading to Tilbury Fort, on the Thames, from the church on a hill three miles away. There were horsemen and footmen, and in the midst of them there was a carriage emblazoned with the Royal Arms of England. In that carriage sat Elizabeth, Queen of England, come to hearten her troops camped around and about Tilbury's burg—or fort—to give it its modern meaning. She had come by river from St. James' Palace to visit her army—some 17,000 East Anglian volunteers—assembled under my Lord of Leicester to resist any attacks launched from the "Invincible" Armada.

ENTHUSIASM

Vociferous was the enthusiasm of the soldiery and the protestations of undying loyalty to the Virgin Queen who had steered England away from war during practically the whole of the 30 years she had then reigned. She was a woman of peace (what woman is not?), but no coward. Her intellect and sagacity have seldom, if ever, been equaled in any other English monarch; and by the exercise of these qualities she kept the peace. But if the Spaniards wanted war, they should have it!

Let us imagine her, as one writer puts it, "animated by patriotism and glittering in the pomp of arms, seated on a noble charger, with a general's truncheon in her hand, a corselet of polished steel laced on over her magnificent apparel, and a page in attendance bearing her white-plumed helmet, riding bareheaded from rank to rank," and heartening the men with her famous and eloquent appeal. How she delivered it we do not know. She certainly could not have addressed the whole army. Perhaps she wrote it and had it read to the troops by their officers. But the message was a stirring one.

GREAT MESSAGE

She said: "My loving people, we have been persuaded by some, that are careful of our safety, to take heed how we commit ourselves to armed multitudes for fear of treachery; but, I assure you, I do not live to distrust my faithful and loving people. Let tyrants fear. I have also so behaved myself that, under God, I have placed by chiefest strength and safeguard in the loyal hearts and goodwill of my subjects. And, therefore, I am come among you, as you see at this time, not for my recreation and sport, but being resolved in the midst and heat of battle to live and die amongst you all; to lay down for my God, and for my kingdom, and for my people, my honor and my blood even in the dust. I know I have the body of a weak and feeble woman, but I have the heart and stomach of a king;—and of a king of England, too!—and think foul scorn that Parma, or Spain, or any prince of Europe should dare to invade the borders of my realm, to which rather than any dishonor shall grow by me, I myself will take up arms—I myself will be your general, judge and rewarder of every one of your virtues in the field.

"I know already for your forwardness you have deserved crowns; and we do assure you on the word of a prince they shall be duly paid you. In the meantime, my lieutenant-general shall be in my stead, than whom never prince commanded a more noble or worthy subject; not doubting but that by obedience to my general, by your concord in the camp and by your valor in the field, we shall shortly have a famous victory over those enemies of my God, of my kingdoms and people."

WELL TO REMEMBER

And so the great queen, her mission accomplished, hurried back to her duties in the metropolis. What happened to the Armada is a well-known story. But with such a queen and such dauntless British hearts to serve her, is there any doubt about the manner in which the Spanish hordes would have been received had they landed?

It is meet that we should today remember a queen who loved peace, but who was ready to die with her troops in defence of her country.

Roads made by Roman armies formed a very important factor in extension of Roman power and the spread of Roman civilization.

Global Survey

WASHINGTON'S approval of the movement headed by France to create an all-western European parliament with advisory powers may well give the added impetus necessary to bring this historic project to fulfillment.

Establishment of such a parliament might be a seven-league stride towards creation of a united states of Europe (or at least of western Europe)—dream of many generations of statesmen. However, apart from such a long-range development, an advisory parliament would be an invaluable aid to the Marshall Plan.

This encouragement from the United States State Department comes at a moment when France needs it. Britain has indicated that she may not want to take part now, and of course her participation is vital.

EUROPEAN ASSEMBLY

Only last Wednesday Winston Churchill released a recent exchange of letters in which he proposed to Prime Minister Attlee the creation of a European assembly. Attlee replied that he was in sympathy with the basic idea but thought this wasn't the "right time for the government to take this major initiative, when their hands are so full already with urgent and difficult problems."

Whether there is any relation between Attlee's statement and the subsequent announcement by Washington is a matter of speculation. However, it is clear that the United States wants to get ahead with a project over which Britain is hesitating.

Thus far the French proposal has been made to the other countries which have signed the Brussels alliance—Britain, Belgium, The Netherlands and Luxembourg. However, American officials assume that the invitation ultimately would be extended to all the 16 countries which are participating in the Marshall Plan.

UNDERSTANDABLE

Britain's hesitation is understandable. She is, of course, a signatory of the five-power Brussels alliance, but the broader union is something else again. In the first place she must, as Attlee has pointed out, consult with all the other members of the British Commonwealth before entering into a united states of western Europe. Then, too, she not only is in process of overhauling her great empire, but is in the midst of a fierce economic crisis which provides a full-time job in itself.

Still, one would expect England to co-operate in a project of which she approves in principle and which the United States backs so strongly. As a matter of fact, the economic rehabilitation of western Europe would be of inestimable value to Britain in recovering her own crisis. Not to mention the added military security.

COMPETITION NEEDED

Calgary Herald

It is regrettable that the government will be faced by a numerically weak—and divided—opposition. Unless the government whip can keep the party members on their toes, there is a danger that the same lethargy, so evident on many occasions in the past few sessions, will creep over the House.

HAPPY CLICHE

Winnipeg Free Press

The enormous, untapped resources of Canada's north have become one of the better oratorical cliches in Canadian after-dinner speeches but the discovery of titanium, the new exploration for iron ore in Labrador, the find of uranium in British Columbia make it a happy cliché indeed. In the last few years Canada's subsoil has shown itself to be a treasure cave without parallel in the modern world. There could be nothing better to sit on in these uneasy days.

DEVELOP OR SURRENDER

Toronto Globe and Mail

Many Canadians, gifted with tolerance and imagination, have envisioned the great destiny which their country must fulfill. Its vast area, its geographical situation and its undeveloped resources will compel the Dominion either to accept the greatness that will be thrust upon her and work to justify it or surrender her heritage to more aggressive hands. Our country is, as yet, in the very early stages of its industrial development. It is at the stage where the initiative and diligence of thousands of ambitious and energetic individuals are weaving the fabric from which Canada will ultimately be made.

Great Grain Surpluses In U.S. Affecting Prices At Winnipeg

By CANADIAN PRESS

In two important respects times on the prairies are getting back to normal.

Farmers now can sell their oats and barley on any world market which appears favorable to them. And livestock producers once more have gained access to the United States market with the lifting of the embargo on such sales.

Huge surpluses of wheat and corn in the U.S.—which is harvesting bumper crops—have had a depressing effect on grain futures at Winnipeg this month.

HEDGING SALES
In addition, the market is having a difficult time absorbing a steady flow of hedging sales on new-crop oats, barley, flax and rye.

When grain companies accept delivery on grain at country elevators from farmers, they sell this grain for future delivery through the facilities of the Winnipeg Grain Exchange.

By so doing, they eliminate any chance of taking a loss from a decline in price while the grain is being shipped to a position where it can be sold either for domestic consumption or for export. This process is called hedging.

The opening of the U.S. market to cattle producers has resulted in the development of uncertain price trends, exemplified by the action at the St. Boniface, Man., stockyards.

Traders there are holding back awaiting a clear-cut indication of the market before they load up with cattle. They are afraid to buy heavily in case the market falls to hold and they are caught with a loss.

The lifting of export restrictions brought out a flood of offerings and depressed prices. Daily carry-overs have been heavy. Hot weather has slowed the demand for meat, and buyers for U.S. interests have been reluctant to pay the high asking prices.

Consequently, hopes held for sharply-increased prices have not so far been realized.

MARKETS SATURDAY

Oats and barley futures moved within a narrow range on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange Saturday. Trade was fairly active in rye, with hedging pressure heavier on the strength of new crop deliveries. On the Chicago grain market prices worked lower on somewhat dull trade.

Judge Of Cheese At Toronto Fair Tells How It's Done

TORONTO (CP) — How would you judge a cheese?

There are dozens of smooth, good-looking cheeses lined up at the Canadian National Exhibition here and to the inexperienced eye they all look much alike.

But they have their differences and D. M. Beattie of Ottawa, one of the judges, explained today just how to tell them. He's with the federal grading and inspecting services.

The cheese judge digs into the cheese with a long, narrow instrument called a trier and removes a sample. The sample, or plug, is then examined for color, 10 points; flavor, 45; texture, 25; closeness, 15, and for finish, 5.

One way of judging is to observe the appearance of the plug, which should resemble a candle when removed.

"We don't taste it," he said. "It takes a good deal of chewing to get the taste and that takes too much time."

Instead, a piece of the plug is crumbled between thumb and finger and then checked for its smell and flavor. "It takes years to develop the ability to judge a cheese in this way," he said.

Like the butter at the show, the cheese is kept in a refrigerated room with instruments holding the temperature below 60° degrees.

"And that," said Mr. Beattie with a grin as he looked at the blazing sun outside, "is one of the nice things about this work."

Must Overcome National Egoism, Says Einstein

WARSAW, Poland (CAP)—The World Congress of Intellectuals Saturday released a letter from Prof. Albert Einstein saying the way to world peace should be found "without losing ourselves in the petty political controversies of every day life."

Einstein said another war "would mean unpredictable destruction in proportions unknown heretofore."

"In order to escape this terrifying danger we must overcome unlimited national egoism and must not think in terms of brutal physical power."

Amateur Fighter Accused Of Calgary Murder In Hold-up

TORONTO (CP)—Stanley McLaren, 23-year-old Western Canada boxer, Sunday night was charged with the murder of a Calgary Chinese storekeeper shot during a $13 hold-up in September, 1945.

McLaren was arrested by police after a street corner brawl during which police said he struck his wife. Later, detectives learned from Calgary police McLaren was wanted in connection with the slaying of Lem Youngwing and the murder charge was laid.

Police said a lone bandit entered Lem's fruit store in Calgary the night of Sept. 24, 1945. He bought some peaches, waited for all customers to leave the store, pulled out a revolver and ordered the storekeeper to turn over his money.

When the Chinese shouted, the bandit hit him over the head with the revolver. Another storekeeper drove the robber off and Lem died next day of injuries.

After McLaren was arrested Saturday, police said they checked a tip that he was wanted for a Winnipeg hold-up and slaying. They learned nothing. Then the informant gave Calgary as the locale.

The blond, six-foot McLaren, police said, lived in Calgary for some time after the slaying. Then he went to Vancouver. He came to Toronto a month ago from northern Ontario. He is a plasterer by trade. He said he had been a well-known amateur boxer.

The DOCTOR Says:

CENTRAL HEATING MAY CAUSE NOSE TO RUN

By EDWIN P. JORDAN, M.D.

This is the time of year when susceptible people most often complain of excessive mucus in the nose, and of hawking and spitting. Some people call this condition catarrh. It was formerly known as defluxion or rheum. Today, doctors usually speak of it as "postnasal drip," but this is not much better than the old names.

Whatever it is called, it is a most disagreeable condition. It is caused by the formation of mucus in the nose or sinuses, which drips down into the throat and upper breathing tubes. The irritating effects of this mucus result in constant nose blowing, sneezing, clearing of the throat, and bringing up of small quantities of mucus with a hacking cough.

Apparently many different conditions are at least partly to blame. Excessive dampness is undoubtedly a factor in many people. Other things which have been blamed are smoking, central heating, dust, irritating fumes, germs, rapid changes in the external temperature of the air, emotional disturbances and abnormalities in the structure of the nose or sinuses.

Certainly central heating, which causes extremely dry rooms, combined with excessive moisture in the air outside, must be an irritating factor in many people. The dryness of centrally heated houses or rooms causes increased evaporation of moisture from the nasal passages, which thickens the mucus and makes the normal process of its removal less satisfactory.

The rapid changes in the temperature out-of-doors, which are greatest in fall, winter and spring, are most certainly a strain. Undoubtedly, they first cause contraction and then enlargement of the blood vessels, which in turn directly affect the amount and nature of the nasal secretions.

SWALLOWING NOT HARMFUL

Many people wonder whether swallowing the nasal secretions will harm the stomach. From what is known of the nature of the mucus, and the ability of the stomach to handle it, most people do not suffer. The danger to the lower part of the breathing apparatus is also ordinarily slight, unless mucus causes such constant coughing as to overstrain the breathing tubes, or bronchi, and the lungs.

Ordinarily, therefore, the post-nasal drip of mucus is comparatively harmless, although annoying. It is the result of one or more irritations which can be overcome only by removing the cause or causes. Unfortunately, that is often impossible without a complete change in residence, and the post-nasal drip alone is hardly enough to make that necessary.

United States Of Europe Assembly Set For Sept. 1-4

GENEVA (AP)—The first parliament of the United States of Europe will be held at Interlaken, Switzerland, this week under the presidency of Georges Bohy, Socialist member of the Belgian cabinet.

Count Richard Coudenhove-Kalergi, secretary-general of the European Parliamentary Union, told a recent press conference in Geneva that the purposes of the Interlaken meeting, Sept. 1 to 4, are:

1. To urge immediate convocation of a constituent assembly for Europe, elected by the national parliaments to draft a federal constitution of Europe.

2. To reach an agreement upon the main principles of this constitution.

The idea of a constituent assembly was launched at the first European parliamentary congress last September in Gstaad, Switzerland.

Approximately 250 delegates are expected at the Interlaken meeting.

The secretary-general said a recent poll showed that within the parliaments of France, Italy, Greece, Belgium, Switzerland, The Netherlands and Luxembourg there are absolute majorities favorable to European federation.

The proposed constituent assembly has been discussed in Britain's House of Commons and in the French National Assembly. It also was taken up at the Congress of Europe at The Hague. George Bidault, former French foreign minister, proposed organization of a European assembly at the last conference of the foreign ministers of western Europe.

Coudenhove-Kalergi cited these developments as evidence of growing interest in a European federation.

Union Wants C.C.L. To Reinstate It

VANCOUVER (CP)—Immediate reinstatement in the Canadian Congress of Labor of the expelled International Union of Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers (C.I.O.) and its officers was requested Saturday by the British Columbia Federation of Labor.

The C.C.L. expelled the miners' union last Tuesday because of an article published in the union's paper attacking A. R. Mosher, president of the Canadian Brotherhood of Railway Employees and of the C.C.L.

It also named for two-year personal expulsion the union's British Columbia regional director, Harvey Murphy, for "making slanderous remarks concerning C.C.L. officials." Murphy is also vice-president of the B.C. Federation of Labor.

Federation president Harold Pritchett made the reinstatement announcement following an executive council meeting.

Narcotics Charge

VANCOUVER (CP)—Edward Morgan, 22, of Toronto, was remanded until Sept. 2 when he appeared in court here Saturday on a charge of possessing narcotics. Bail was set at $10,000. Police seized narcotics valued at $18,000 when Morgan was arrested Friday.

Dr. F. D. L. Crofton Weds Halifax Girl

Of interest both here and in the east was the marriage, Aug. 12 at Christ Church Cathedral in Vancouver, of Marquise Elizabeth Hines, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Hines, Halifax, and Dr. Francis D. L. Crofton, Vancouver, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Crofton, 930 McClure Street, Victoria.

The couple are motoring south on their honeymoon, and will return to Vancouver to make their home.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her gown of blue satin, slightly en train was lace-trimmed, with long sleeves, fitted bodice and sheer net yoke. Her veil of net was crowned with a tiara of matching satin and lace and she carried a white prayer book topped with gardenias and white satin streamers.

Mrs. W. S. Maddin, as honor matron, was gowned in palest blue sheer, styled with gathered bodice and skirt slightly en train. Her long gloves matched her frock, and she wore a halo of the same blue sheer. Fragrant gardenias fashioned her bouquet.

Dr. W. S. Maddin stood with the groom as best man. Jack Alley, Donald Corbett and Irwin Davis were ushers.

York Room at Georgia Hotel was the scene of the reception where guests were received by the bride and groom and their parents. Dr. T. Osler gave the bridal toast.

For her traveling ensemble, Mrs. Crofton chose a lemon snow wool suit, with accessories in dark brown, and a stone-martin stole.

To Attend McGill University

Well-Known Couple Repeat Vows At First United Church

Madison, Wisconsin, where the groom has been appointed to the staff of the University of Wisconsin, will be the home of Miss Frances Victoria Law, and Walter Charles Cooper, who were married quietly Saturday afternoon at 3, at First United Church.

The bride, a member of the staff of the Provincial Civil Service Commission, is the elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Law, 1334 Yale Street. Mr. Cooper, who has been completing studies for his Ph.D. degree in chemistry at Princeton University where he is affiliated with the Sigma Xi Fraternity, is the elder son of Mrs. W. Cooper, 251 Government Street and the late Mr. Cooper.

Mauve and ivory gladioli in tall white standard baskets, were placed before the altar and clusters of mauve and white heather marked guest pews for the service performed by Dr. D. H. Telfer, West Point Grey United Church, Vancouver.

Jack Smith, organist, accompanied Mrs. Gilbert Brown as she sang "Because," during the signing of the register.

Delicate ivory French cashmere crepe fashioned the street-length frock with tiny rolled collar, graceful skirt made with draped lines, and three-quarter length sleeves worn by the bride. Her French model straw hat of soft mist blue, trimmed with flowers in a deeper hue, was in theme with her bouquet of blue delphinium, ivory and palest of pink gladioli. Her gloves and shoes were in the same pastel shade as her frock.

The bride chose as attendants, her sister, Miss Barbara Law as honor maid and Miss Angela Harrison as bridesmaid.

They wore identical frocks of orchid pink French cashmere crepe, styled with ballerina skirts, and rounded necklines distinguished with scalloped edging which was repeated in the three-quarter length sleeves. Their crownless hats, matching their frocks, were trimmed with flowers and veiling, and they wore orchid pink shoes. Ivory and orchid pink gladioli fashioned their cascade bouquets.

Neil Macdougall served as best man. Ushers were Jack Jones and Lloyd Norris.

A reception was held at the home of the bridesmaid, 644 Beach Drive. Guests were welcomed by the newlyweds, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Law, Mrs. Cooper and Alfred Poole, uncle of the groom. Toast to the bride was proposed by James M. Stewart.

An heirloom veil, sent from Scotland by the bride's grandmother, encircled the three-tier wedding cake, topped with a sprig of white heather. Decorating the table were vases of sweetheart roses and heather.

Mr. and Mrs. Cooper are traveling up-island and to Banff on their honeymoon. The bride changed to a suit of ruby red sheer wool, with black off-face felt hat, and accessories to match.

They are Chief Officer Yngvar Hvass of the Ss. Bougainville and the former Miss Leonora Dunn, 27-year-old Vancouver, B.C., secretary.

They met at a ship's party last December. Recently when his ship was approaching Los Angeles, Hvass decided not to wait until he landed to pop the question. He called Miss Dunn in Vancouver by radio telephone and said "will you marry me?" and she said "of course."

His skipper, Capt. H. Bernzén, gave the bride away at St. Luke's Episcopal Church today, then gave a reception aboard ship. The honeymoon cruise will be to Vancouver.

By Mohammedan law a man can have four wives, and any marriage in excess of that number will be dissolved by a judge on the woman's application.

Trend Toward 1920's, Small Waists Keynote Paris Styles

PARIS, Aug.—Slim lines replace the padded outlines of the new look in most of the French fall fashion displays thus far. Skirt lengths remain about the same, from 10 to 14 inches from the floor, but much of last year's exaggerated fullness has been removed from the silhouette. One of the few designers clinging to the bouffant line is Christian Dior, author of the "new look," who shows a silhouette in which a full circular skirt is lined with buckram from waist to hem, to make it stand out, parachute fashion.

Main points emerging from the shows indicate trends. Waistlines are extremely tight. Waistline seams fall anywhere from the top of the ribs to mid-hips level. Many dresses are cut in three sections, bodice, waist yoke and skirt.

Skirts are mainly straight with an abundance of detail placed around the hips, or comprise a close-fitting sheath which merges into a deep flounce at the knees. This last is the nearest thing to a new silhouette so far. Swing skirts have replaced the fabulous fullness of the "new look" dresses. Many have built-up waistlines that extend nearly to the bust and are teamed up with dressy blouses or wool-jersey sweaters.

A general back-to-the-twenties trend is perceptible, but most have a definite 1949 flavor.

FURS FOR EMPHASIS

The loose, wrap-around coats that have no buttoned fastenings are clearly lifted from this era, and the addition of fantastically long and luxurious fur stoles and fur lining, which run the gamut through mink and chinchilla, leopard and cony, supplies the modern touch.

Hips are spotlighted with fur also. Many jacket peplums are laid around with fox or Persian lamb.

Some coats are so voluminous they look like capes into which colossal sleeves have been inserted. Brief coats look like full-cut editions that Chinese coolies wear and often have graduated hemlines that dip at the back. Some, particularly Dior's, are stiffened with buckram. Many are fur-lined.

Capes of all lengths, topping dresses or adding extra warmth to heavy winter topcoats, have staged a comeback.

Evening wear has changed very little. Billowing dresses, long sheaths, slit to provide a little leg movement, and Grecian drapery are all featured. Satin is the favorite so far for billowing skirts, the most popular length seems to be ankle level in front, dipping to the floor in back.

Broadcloth, in all weights, heavy blanket velour, wool jersey and plaids are prime favorites for coats and dresses. Colors range through beige, soft greys, deep browns, forest greens, with occasional sun yellows and brilliant reds. All shades of puce, mulberry and lilac are popular.

The keeping of poultry for the production of eggs and flesh dates from a remote period of civilization.

Ethel Sam Bride Of Roger Yock Lee

Tall baskets of flame and white gladioli created the setting at Chinese Anglican Church, early Saturday evening for the marriage of Miss Ethel Sam, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Sam Wing Poy, to Roger Yock Lee, 500 Sumas Street, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Lee June Ming.

For the ceremony performed by Rev. G. Lim Yuen, the bride was given in marriage by her brother, Raymond Sam Hon.

Her gown of white satin was made with yoke of sheer net, scalloped bodice, and long sleeves pointed over the wrists. She chose a Princess Elizabeth headpiece of lily of the valley to hold her chapel veil, and in her bouquet were gardenias and stephanotis cascaded with red roses. She wore her groom's gifts, a jade pendant on a gold chain and matching bracelet.

Miss Helen Lowe, as honor maid, wore a gown of ice-blue, the broadcote bodice featuring a rounded neckline and the taffeta skirt distinguished with a bustle effect. She wore a Juliet cap, trimmed with feathers, to match her gown, and carried a cascade bouquet of pink rosebuds and stephanotis.

The groom, well known in connection with the Chinese Youth Association, of which he has been president during the past five years, chose as best man Frank Mar. Ushers were Dick Mah and Edward Lum. Miss Mildred Yipp played wedding music.

A reception was held at Knights of Pythias Hall. The bride's table, set with tall white candles and bowls of pink carnations, was centred with a three-tier wedding cake.

Before the couple left for Seattle on their honeymoon trip, brothers of the groom, Yan Lee, Hayward Lee and Gary Q. Lee, were hosts at a banquet Sunday in their honor.

For her traveling costume the bride chose a burgundy wine suit, with topcoat and hat in grey, wine accessories and gardenia corsage.

Alexis Smith Crowns Pretty 'Miss Lake Louise'

LAKE LOUISE, Alta.—Betty McNulty, one of the loveliest employees of the Chateau Lake Louise, was crowned "Miss Lake Louise" by one of the hotel's loveliest guests, screen star Alexis Smith. Crowning of the 22-year-old Winnipeg beauty, a third-year arts student at University of Minnesota, took place during the premiere showing of the "Chateau Follies of 48," whose cast was drawn from approximately 50 members of the hotel's own personnel.

The crown, fashioned from Lake Louise blooms, was placed on Miss McNulty's brow by the screen star after her name had been announced as winner of the Miss Lake Louise contest which featured beauties from five departments of the Chateau Lake Louise as well as an entry from three other Lake Louise establishments.

Miss McNulty, an employee of the chateau's front office, was chosen by a panel of five judges, all hotel guests, at a private judging Thursday but the verdict was withheld until last night.

Others competing in the contest for the Miss Lake Louise title were Gerry Kennedy, Winnipeg; Jean Wassell, Sifton, Man.; Christine Watrous, Toronto; Doreen Hadden, Mirror, Alta.; and Pat Lindell, Revelstoke.

All queen candidates appeared on the stage during the Follies performance, which won the acclaim of a large audience. Robert Smith, a first-year law student at Dalhousie University, produced and directed the show. Others on the executive were Virginia Carrigg and Eileen Stoot, assistant producers; Dave Wilson, musical director; Frank Swartzlander, business manager; Eileen Stoot, costumes; Lyle Thompson, choreography.

Lady Banting First

Lady Banting, widow of the late Sir Frederick Banting, who discovered insulin, has become the first Canadian woman to be awarded a membership in the Royal College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists. Lady Banting, who has been working in a London hospital the past two years, said the result of the examinations in July had surprised her and had convinced her "it was just a fluke."

Thousands witnessed horsemanship at its best, with show stock from western Canada and United States appearing in the ring. Among enthusiastic spectators were the Misses Felicity Pepler, Anna Wootton and Erica Pepler, above, front row, left to right; back row, Mrs. R. A. Wootton, Miss Carol Wootton and Reeve R. A. Wootton of Oak Bay.

Vancouver Home Awaits Newlyweds

A home in Vancouver awaits David John Creasy and his bride, the former Elizabeth Dorothy Ferguson, who were married Saturday at 8 at St. Aidan's United Church, Rev. T. G. Griffiths officiating.

The bride, daughter of Mrs. A. Ferguson, Vancouver, and the late J. D. Ferguson, was given in marriage by her uncle, Neil MacKinnon.

Her gown of brocade satin was fashioned with net overskirt, and neckline embroidered with seed pearls. Seed pearls were repeated in her net headdress which held her full-length veil and she carried Talisman roses and white heather in her bridal bouquet.

Attendants were sisters of the bride and groom, Miss Jessie Ferguson as honor maid, and Miss Phyllis Creasy, bridesmaid. Their gowns of sheer nylon were in mauve and primrose yellow. They carried bouquets of carnations and gladioli to match and similar flowers fashioned their headresses.

Jack Lucas, Vancouver, attended the groom, and Ernie Power, also of Vancouver, Ken Jennings and Ken Norsworthy seated guests. While the register was signed Mrs. Marjorie Boorman Sturgeon sang "I'll Walk Beside You."

Guests attended a reception at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Creasy, 1081 St. Patrick Street. Baskets of bright gladioli decorated reception rooms and white tapers in silver holders, and silver vases of sweet peas were placed on the bride's table. Toast was proposed by Arthur Oates.

For the wedding trip up-island, Mrs. Creasy wore a tailored red suit with accessories in beige, corsage bouquet of yellow roses, and carried an alligator handbag, gift of the groom.

Baby Abandoned At Hospital Door

WINNIPEG (CP)—Winnipeg city police are on the lookout for a nipple—chief clue in their efforts to trace the parents of an abandoned baby.

The nipple, police say, is of an unusual type, not sold in the city. The baby, a three-week-old girl, was found early Saturday inside the entrance of St. Joseph's Hospital here, fully clothed and wrapped in a blanket.

The baby is being cared for by hospital authorities. Blue-eyed and with dark hair, the infant appears to be normal and healthy.

A graduated feeding bottle, about three-quarters full of milk, was found at the child's side. It is the nipple from the bottle on which hinge police hopes of finding the child's parents.

FLOWN FROM TRIESTE FOR OPERATION—Michael Shannon, 8 months, held by student nurse Margaret Stumpf in a Chicago hospital was flown from Trieste for a "blue baby" operation. His father, Maj. Leland Shannon of Wichita, Kas., is stationed in Trieste. The other children, Mary Lou Nicholson (in bed) of Decatur, Ill., and Julia Borden of Piedmont, Ala., underwent similar surgery.

Russian Citizens Get Right To Build, Own Their Homes

MOSCOW (AP)—A special decree of the Presidium of the Supreme Soviet today gave every Russian citizen the right to build and own a home.

At the same time, a decree of the Council of Ministers of the U.S.S.R. ordered municipal and rural governments to make land available to citizens desiring to construct their own homes.

The one problem which has to be solved now is how to get the house built. There are no contractors to whom a Soviet citizen can turn, since private enterprise on an individual basis is illegal in this socialist state.

There obviously are going to be several ways of getting homes built, of course. Apparent prospects include:

1. The citizen can build the house himself, getting help from private individuals — carpenters, bricklayers, plumbers—and purchasing the necessary materials from state retail outlets.

2. It is entirely possible that home building co-operative organizations will be formed to whom the prospective homeowner can turn for assistance on a contractual basis in constructing his house.

3. Within the next year it is quite probable that prefabricated houses will go on sale in Soviet retail stores with the price probably including erection costs.

In any event, it appears the Russian government intends to get its citizens into private homes and therefore probably will do something about seeing these get built. Up to the present there has been no regular way in which any citizen could go to his local government to acquire the land plot he needed.

REAL GREEK IS REALLY GREEK TO HIM—Shore leave in Athens, Greece, brought a puzzling moment for this sailor when he was stumped by the price list at an outdoor cafe. He's part of Task Force 128, which paid an informal visit to ports in Greece and Turkey at the end of its Mediterranean cruise.

LONDON—A British Overseas Airways Corporation Liberator recently was compelled by the weather to climb 18,000 feet to contact an air tanker of Flight Refueling Limited. At this record height the plane took on 850 gallons of fuel.

Dismissed As Communist, British Secretary Makes Public Defence

LONDON (AP) — Britain's purge of Communists from government posts, is proceeding quietly but a brunette has enlisted the proceedings.

She is 30-year-old Anne George, private secretary to Education Minister George Tomlinson. Small, keen, an ardent trade unionist, she was the first civil servant to be suspended after a declaration by Prime Minister Attlee that only persons of utmost reliability may be employed in any work involving security of the state.

The Prime Minister, in a statement to the Commons, said membership in the Communist Party or a reputation for being a fellow traveller are grounds to raise a presumption that a civil servant is unfit for certain posts.

In a careful approach to a ticklish issue, Attlee outlined a plan to investigate suspiciously, dismiss persons inconspicuously, or transfer them to other jobs with the least possible stir.

ADVISORY COMMISSION

First the prime minister set up an Advisory Commission and named to it three former civil servants, all men of high repute and broad understanding.

Ministers who hear about Communists or Fascists or persons closely associated with Communist or Fascist enterprises serving in key positions must place such persons on leave, with pay, and certify the cases to the commission.

If they wish, the individuals singled out may appear before the commission for a non-judicial hearing. The commission, after hearing all evidence in private, then reports to the minister, who takes appropriate action—dismissal or transfer to some other post in which the individual can do no harm.

The Treasury, which has charge of the purge machinery, said "about 25" persons now are on leave with pay, awaiting action by the minister or the commission. Miss George was the very first to go and she reacted with such vigor that well-planned intentions to carry on the purge quietly may be upset.

SHE MAKES SPEECHES

An impressive speaker with wide support in trade unions, Miss George was quick to defend herself in public. Asked directly whether she is a Communist, she replied: "No employer has a right to ask such a question."

She chose not to appear before the Advisory Commission, thus placing the entire responsibility on her employer, Education Minister Tomlinson. The minister has called her "the perfect private secretary." She was re-elected to a trade union post with a thumping majority and she challenged anyone to find a weak spot in her record for loyalty to Britain.

HAMILTON, Bermuda (CP)—More than 450 colored West Indians are on their way to England on a self-made adventure in search of employment.

They booked passages separately and without organization and are making the journey in the Ministry of Transport's ship Empire Windrush. Hundreds more have their fare and passports ready, but are waiting for a ship, to escape the growing unemployment here.

On the quayside at Hamilton, Willis Johnson of Kingston, Jamaica, told his story typical of most. By his side was his wife and their two children.

He had served with the R.A.F. during the war and had met and married his wife in England, where their children were born.

'United Nations' Of Church Planned

By FRANK STEWART
AMSTERDAM — A "United Nations" of the church world is in convention here to write an historic chapter in the Christian communions of the world.

Leading dignitaries of Protestant and Eastern Orthodox churches of the world are taking part in the first assembly of the World Council of Churches, which is in session in this city from Aug. 22 to Sept. 4.

Representation of delegates includes 150 religious bodies in 40 countries. It is the first demonstration of a world-wide universal church movement and is expected to bridge the traditional gulf between the churches of the Protestant and Orthodox faiths.

More than 1,400 persons are attending the assembly which will formally constitute the World Council after 10 years as a provisional body.

The convocation includes 450 official delegates; 380 alternate delegates; 100 youth delegates; 500 fraternal delegates, accredited visitors, observers, consultants, press and radio representatives.

The Roman Catholic Church, which is the only one of the major Christian bodies unrepresented, has unofficial observers present.

Churches in countries on both sides of the so-called "iron curtain" and from victor and defeated nations alike in World War II have sent delegates.

Church bodies from the following countries are participating in the deliberations:

Australia, Austria, Belgium, Brazil, Canada, China, Czechoslovakia, Denmark, Egypt, Ethiopia, Finland, France, Germany, Greece, Holland, Hungary, India, Indonesia, Italy, Japan, Korea, Mexico, New Zealand, Norway, Palestine, Philippine Islands, Poland, Romania, Siam, South Africa, Spain, Sweden, Switzerland, Syria, Turkey, United Kingdom, Ireland, West Indies, Yugoslavia, United States and others.

Both European and U.S. leaders have pointed out that the World Council is unlikely to produce specific pronouncements on even major issues nor will it set up machinery for making such statements.

The No. 1 objective of the assembly will be perfection of plans for the future program of the World Council, which had its inception as far back as 1910 when global leaders began to dream about it. Plans had been made for the first meeting in 1940 but the World War prevented that assembly.

The main theme of the session will be "Man's Disorder and God's Design." This will be studied under four sections: (a) The Universal Church in God's Design (the nature of the church);

(b) God's Design and Man's Witness (evangelism);

(c) The Church and the Disorder of Society;

(d) The Church and International Disorder.

In the discussions on the "disorder of society" and "international disorder," the assembly will launch into discussions that will grapple with present-day problems.

These will include: Russia; the Marshall Plan, Aid to Europe, Place of Women in the Church, Individual Enterprise, Socialism, Communism, State Church and the Place of Youth in World Church Affairs.

Consideration of the "Place of Women in the Church" will involve the question of ordination of women. Major denominations, both in the United States and in Europe, in recent years have debated whether or not women should have full rights of the ministry.

Officials of the world body have warned that the primary purpose of the meeting is not a union of the various churches but an attempt to secure Christian unity in the world.

It will not be an American conference. Of the official 450 delegates, only 90 will speak for the United States and Canada.

The American Christians will be outnumbered by those from Britain and the continent and almost equally by the Eastern Orthodox and the so-called "younger churches." The latter are the groups founded by missionary activities in Asia, Africa and Latin-America.

The position of the church in the clash for power between communism and capitalism is expected to provide pointed division of thought.

Another point to be considered is the attitude of the World Council toward the United Nations in the event that Russia at some future time should withdraw. Observers point out that the church, with member bodies in Russia, would be faced with a delicate situation.

Montreal Hotel Had 35 Years Of Serving Royalty, Celebrities

MONTREAL (CP)—The Place Viger Hotel, celebrating its 50th anniversary this month, has seen the pomp of royalty and the banquets of celebrities, but has probably never been happier than it is today as it echoes to the laughter of 65 children.

Built in 1897 and officially opened in August, 1898, it has had an exciting history. It was the last word in accommodation at the turn of the century and even in the late 1920s it held a leading place in Montreal's social life.

The site was once a 60-foot hill marking the end of Notre Dame Street. In 1658 a defence outpost known as Fort St. Louis was erected on this hill, followed later by the hotel and station.

The name Viger is derived from Montreal's first mayor, Jacques Viger, who donated the land now known as Place Viger Square to the city.

After the turn of the century the Place Viger Hotel played host to Lili Langtry, the famous English beauty. She was a favorite at court in her day.

FETTERED EDWARD VIII

In 1929 the city of Montreal tendered the Prince of Wales, later Edward VIII, a civic banquet at the Place Viger Hotel. Records show it was also the favorite stopping place in Montreal of Sir Wilfrid Laurier.

By 1935 more modern hotels had stolen the spotlight and Viger was closed as a hotel. With pressing need for space in the city during World War II the hotel was taken over by the federal government as a manning pool for merchant seamen.

At the close of the war it was leased to Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation by the Canadian Pacific Railway, owner and builder, for use as emergency housing for veterans.

Some conversion was necessary and the first veterans' families moved in November, 1946. The hotel's once famous salon now is reconverted into a children's playground.

Castle-like Place Viger Hotel which has played host to makers of history now is home to 50 families with 65 children, who are victims of the housing shortage.

WARNING TO DOG LOVERS

Beware of DANGER DIETS!

TODAY, in Victoria, hundreds of dogs are suffering from ills brought on by DANGER DIETS—diets lacking food elements essential for healthy growth!

Good nutrition is as vital to your dog's health and happiness as it is to your family's. There is one way, and only one way you can be certain your dog gets all the vitamins, proteins and minerals he must have, and gets them in the proper proportions.

That only way is to feed him a dog food that has been completely and mercilessly tested in actual use under actual normal living conditions.

That dog food is PARD.

Ever since 1934, in Swift's kennels, generation after generation of pure-bred, pedigreed dogs have been raised on PARD and water alone. Not one of these dogs has ever suffered from any upset traceable to diet!

No other diet for dogs, or combination of diets, can make this claim or anything approaching this claim!

Be worthy of your dog's love and companionship. Keep him in romping good health always. He trusts you. Don't betray him by risking his health with DANGER DIETS.

Give him the dog food that scientific tests have proved will keep him well and happy... make life more fun for him and for you.

Get several cans of PARD today!

These disease symptoms caused by DANGER DIETS
veterinarians say!

Dog owners who feed "hit and miss," unproved, diets to their pets, can seriously endanger their dogs' health and happiness. Improper diet can cause symptoms of disease such as:

Nervousness Diarrhoea Anemia
Lethargy Underweight Shedding Coat

Make your dog's life a good life. Feed him PARD, the complete, proved, "one-dish dinner" that provides the scientifically balanced diet every dog needs every day. Get several cans of PARD today!

FEED SWIFT'S PARD — rich in meat proteins!

Your veterinarian is your dog's friend. Consult him often.

Scottish Tourist Trade Hard Hit By Curb On Gasoline

INVERNESS, Scotland (CP)—The Highlands, as much dependent on the tourist trade as Banff, Alta, and Muskoka, Ont., find gasoline rationing about as helpful as an earthquake.

From Perthshire northwards, innkeepers and householders who depend on "letting" to meet their bills raise their lament over the worst season in memory.

The basic gasoline ration allows the motorist to travel 90 miles a month. This means, say the Highlanders, that the tourists who used to come north with their holiday money are forced to stay nearer home.

Alexander Dunbar, owner of the Kingussie, Inverness-shire, Royal Hotel, said "we have thus far got only about a third of our ordinary seasonal business."

SAY CAR ESSENTIAL

"People simply won't use their petrol allowance traveling up to the Highlands from the south and they consider that a holiday in the Highlands without the use of their own car robs their visit of much of its attractiveness."

Another hotel in the same district, with accommodation for 40, had eight guests.

A Grantown-on-Spey hotel-keeper said it was "ironical" that the Scottish tourist board should ask Canadian and U.S. citizens to spend their holidays in Britain when many restrictions hampered hotels.

Even hotels which depend on tourists who travel by train said their business had been damaged by increased fares.

The most cheerful aspect of the Highland summer was the prospect that grouse would be more numerous on many moors after devastating losses due to disease and vermin during the war years when gamekeepers were away.

The grouse shooting season, one of the "musts" for the well-to-do in prewar years, opened Aug. 12.

Fast Seattle Mare Best In Horse Show Roadster Class

Rhoda Ross, three-year-old bay mare owned and driven by J. Grady Gay, Seattle, whipped her sulky around the sawdust ring at the Kiwanis Club's first international horse show at the Willows Saturday in high-stepping perfection to win the roadster event. Grady Gay also exhibited the Pacific Northwest five-gaited champion, Ross Arden Supreme, and other outstanding horses. Larry Masterton, Everett, who placed second in the roadster event with Rhoda Ross, won the afternoon five-gaited class with Stonewall Classic. Third in the roadster event was Pud Walton, Everett, with Francis Brewer.

Banks Paces Jokers To Lacrosse Victory

Victoria Jokers handed the Nanaimo Palaces a 12 to 9 setback in yesterday's box lacrosse game played at Stevenson Park. The island championship series now stands at two games to one in favor of Nanaimo. The teams battled to a 9-all draw at the up-island centre Saturday night.

The Saturday contest was one of the best games of the season. Jimmy Rice scored the equalizer for the home team to send the game into overtime. Wes Manson's overtime goal for Nanaimo was matched by Kenny Banks of Jokers, and the result was a draw.

In yesterday's tilt, the coal-towners opened the scoring on counters by Jimmy Rice and Earl Bennie for a 2 to 0 lead. Ken Banks started the Jokers off and was followed by Gordie Ellis who knotted the count. Banks went on to score another pair and give the locals a 4 to 2 margin at quarter time.

Neither side was able to penetrate the opponents' defence in the early stages of the second session. Finally Larry Booth tallied for Jokers and was quickly followed by teammate Ray Douglas notching a pair midway through the period, to make the score 7 to 2 for Jokers. Donny White fired home the third Nanaimo goal, which was offset by another from Booth. Wes Manson scored for the up-islanders with a minute and a half left till half time, but Banks marked up his fourth goal, only seconds from the rest session, giving the Woolsey crew a 9 to 4 edge at the breather.

SLICE LEAD

As the third quarter got under way, Palaces got back in the running on scores by Jimmy Gold, Lawrence Garland and Don White, to slice Jokers' lead to two goals. McLennan notched the only Victoria point of the period to leave the three-quarter score at 10 to 7 for the locals.

In the final stanza Douglas made it 11 for Jokers at the two-minute point. At this stage of the game both teams showed signs of tiring from two games in as many days. Fulla of Nanaimo and Andrews of Jokers were both good in their respective nets, and there was no more scoring until Ellis counted for Jokers at the 12-minute mark. Last-minute goals by Rice and Buck Bennie of Nanaimo left the full-time count at 12 to 9 for Jokers.

Page the Cleaners juvenile boys' softball club captured the island championship yesterday by whipping Ladysmith in both ends of a twin bill at Ladysmith, 12 to 2, and 10 to 4. The double victory gave the Cleaners the best-of-three series in straight games.

Jack Doddridge performed the iron-man stunt on the mound for the island champions as he hurled both games. Rod Pottinger hit a home run for Cleaners in the night game.

Page Cleaners will meet Vancouver for the B.C. title, dates and venue to be announced later.

Mangrum-Fazio Deadlock For Utah Golf Title

SALT LAKE CITY (AP)—George Fazio and Lloyd Mangrum battle today for the Utah Open golf title while their fellow divot diggers head for Reno, Nev., and a $25,000 tournament that opens Friday.

Fazio, of Conshohocken, Pa., and Mangrum, of Chicago, were deadlocked yesterday with scores of 274 at the end of 72 holes of the $12,500 Utah event.

They arranged a play-off for this afternoon, with the winner taking $2,150 and the loser $1,550. The match was set for the hilly Fort Douglas course. By deadlocking Fazio, Mangrum assured himself a healthy slice of money and a big jump over bantam Ben Hogan of Hershey, Pa., in a fight for the title of top money winner on the links.

Mangrum was ahead by $254 when the Utah tournament started. Ben drew only $400 for a tie at 281. If Mangrum wins, his total will be $29,854. If he loses, $29,254. Ben has earned $27,847 this year.

BRILLIANT FOES

Mangrum and Fazio, playing in the same threesome for the final 18 holes yesterday, gave a demonstration of brilliant golf under pressure.

Fazio started the day one stroke behind—206 to Mangrum's 205. Fazio evened the match with a three-under-par 32 on the first nine, while Mangrum was out in 33. They ended the contest 14 blows under par for the par 72, 6,580-yard course.

Cary Middlecoff of Memphis, Tenn., finished with a six-under-par 66 to deadlock Jimmy Demaret of Ojai, Calif., for third money at 277. Each received $990.

Bob Hamilton of Landover, Md., Skip Alexander of Lexington, N.C., tied at 278, each drew a cheque for $700. Both finished with a 69.

Blue Peter Scores Sixth Straight Win

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N.Y. (AP)—Blue Peter notched another claim for the 1948 two-year-old championship Saturday by romping to a three-length victory in the rich Hopeful Stakes.

Scoring his sixth straight and most important triumph, the Son of War Admiral led throughout the 6 1/2 furlongs of the 44th Hopeful. His victory brought Joseph M. Roebling, Trenton, N.J., steel magnate, $47,750 first money, and the colt joined the ranks of $100,000 winners with $100,775.

A's Drop To Third With Double Defeat

Spokane Takes Over Second Place; Bremerton In Split With Vancouver

Hank Vallee was the first to go, then followed Larry Lee to San Diego and last, but not least, Dick Greco got his chance with the Coast League Club, but the Tacoma Tigers without these three are still a mighty tough ball club in their home park.

Yesterday afternoon the toothless but still clawing Tigers, with a pitcher playing in the outfield and another hurler on first base, swept both ends of a double-header from the Athletics, 7 to 2, and 6 to 5, to knock the Norbertmen's pennant hopes into a cocked hat and deposit the runner-up A's into third place, a game and a half behind the Spokane Indians.

Spokane made the jump into second by taking two games from Salem, 1 to 0 and 10 to 6. The double victory of the Indians combined with Bremerton's split with Vancouver put the inland empire club within six games of first place.

Bremerton won the second game of their twin bill from the Capitanos, 3 to 2, after losing the first in eight innings, 2 to 1.

Len Kasparovitch was the victim of the Tigers in yesterday's first game. Off to a two-run lead in the first inning on a double by Charlie Balassi, a triple by Vic Buccola and a single by Jack Palmer, Kasparovitch couldn't hold the Tiger nine and was chased in the fifth inning after giving up all seven runs.

STETTER HITS HOMER

The Tigers got one in the second with Cy Greenlaw driving home pitcher George Nicholas on an outfield fly. Glen Stetter's two-run homer in the third put Tacoma in front, 3 to 2. Martin's single with the bases loaded followed by Greenlaw's triple accounted for Tacoma's four runs in the fifth.

Al Goot relieved Kasparovitch and shut out the Tigers the rest of the way.

Victoria had the second game all but sewed up going into the last half of the seventh inning on the strength of Dick Morgan's sixth-inning home run, which put the A's in front 5 to 4. But with one out and Bill Harnisen, the second A's pitcher on the hill, Tacoma loaded the bases on singles by pinch-hitter Nicholas and Danny Perlmuter and a base on balls.

Joe Blankenship was called to the rescue and was promptly greeted with a ringing single to right field by Lewis which scored two runs and gave Tacoma the game, 6 to 5.

As in the first game, the A's got away to an early start. Buccola walked and scored on Wilson's triple in the first inning.

Tacoma came back with a four-run uprising off Jim Propst in the fourth to take the lead. Greenlaw banged home two of the markers with a double after Jack Palmer had booted an apparent double-play ball.

The A's promptly tied it up in the first of the fifth. Morgan singled and Kubiak got a life on Stetter's error. Russ Walseth doubled, scoring Morgan and Sal in the nightcap for the league leaders.

Wenatchee Chiefs took a pair from often-swept Yakima, 4 to 2 and 7 to 2. Linked with Salem's dual loss, the Chiefs' sweep enabled them to move into sixth place, a game and a half ahead of the Senators.

Surging Brooklyn Grabs First Place

Brooklyn's Dodgers have accomplished what many experts said would be impossible.

In last place July 2, Burt Shotton's amazing Brooklyn club was perched in first place today following a tremendous two-month drive out of the National League cellar.

They did it, the hard way, too, sweeping both ends of a doubleheader from their arch-rivals, St. Louis Cardinals, 12 to 7 and 6 to 4.

Of course, the Brooks needed help. They got it from Pittsburgh Pirates who knocked off the erstwhile leader, Boston Braves, twice, 6 to 1 and 5 to 1.

As a result, the Brooks found themselves three percentage points ahead of the Braves, who lead the third-place Cards by one and a half games. Pittsburgh established itself as a definite pennant threat by climbing within three games of the top.

The Dodgers were paced yesterday by Jackie Robinson, their negro second baseman. Robby cracked out six hits in the twin bill. He started with his 10th home run of the season.

Robinson also stole a base, his 17th of the season. Incidentally, all have come during the last two months. He did not steal a single base in his first 50 games.

Stan Musial cracked his 34th home run in a losing cause in the opener.

Charles Graham Dies

SAN FRANCISCO (CP)—Charles H. Graham, 70, president of the San Francisco Seals Baseball Club, died early Sunday of pneumonia in hospital here.

Associated with baseball for 50 years, Graham spent 30 of those years at the helm of the Seals of the Pacific Coast League.

Grace Lenczyk Champ

After Smart Comeback

SAINT JOHN, N.B. (CP)—Miss Grace Lenczyk was still the owner of the Canadian women's open golf championship today, but her 3 and 2 triumph Saturday over Mrs. Eddie Bush, Wilmington, Del., was one of the toughest fights of her career.

Down five holes at the start, the 21-year-old girl from Newington, Conn., had to battle all the way for victory in the 36-hole all-American final.

She did not gain the lead until the 24th, then lost it again just as quickly. But a brilliant sweep of four holes in a row carried her to a winning finish on the 34th.

Wild with her approach shots and her putting, Miss Lenczyk was down five holes at the sixth. Then she got down to business, won the next three holes in a row and finished the morning 18 all square.

The 27th found her one down, with Mrs. Bush threatening to

Amble In Captures Mile Classic By Neck

SEATTLE (AP)—Amble In, chestnut son of Fighting Fox, repeated his 1946 triumph in the Longacres Mile Sunday, winning the $20,000 feature by a neck over Minstrel Boy. The time was 1:35.35.

Minstrel Boy was second and Hank H—the '47 winner—was third, making it a double triumph for the entry trained by Allen Drumheller of Walla Walla, Wash.

The entry paid $2.90, $2.40 and $2.50.

Jockey Noel Richardson piloted five-year-old Amble In, owned by Mrs. L. J. Levine of Seattle, to his second victory in the richest stake of the Longacres season. The net to the winner was slightly over $17,000.

Packing second high weight of 122 pounds, the fleet speedster came within three-fifths of a second of equaling the track record he set in the 1946 mile.

SIR BERRILL SIXTH

The three Canadian entries were never a threat.

A. E. Simpson's Menu, winner of the speed handicap and the opening day Renton Purse, was fifth. Half a length behind came Sir Berrill, owned by Jack Drumheller of Calgary and Bill Lochead of Vancouver, holder of the track record in the British Columbia championship at Lansdowne. Pagan Star, owned by Neil Campbell of Calgary, trailed in eighth place.

The crowd of 11,500 made the entry an almost prohibitive favorite. The most highly-regarded outsider, Why Alibi owned by H. W. Collins of Portland, Ore., finished fourth.

War Moment, fourth horse in the Drumheller entry, got the jump on the field and led into the final turn before fading.

As Amble In and Minstrel Boy, owned by the K. and L. Stables of Seattle, forged ahead Drumheller's Hank H closed from far back with a burst of speed that almost nipped the leaders.

Charlight, fifth Drumheller entry, and Dusky Chance were scratched, leaving only 10 horses in the big race.

GORGE VALE WINS

Golfers from the Gorge Vale Club defeated a squad representing the Salt Spring Island Club 15 to 1 in a team match at the local course Sunday. The home team took the singles 7 to 1 and registered a clean sweep in the four-ball matches.

BIRDIE SQUARES MATCH

The champion squared it again with a birdie on the 28th, lost the 29th, then pulled steadily ahead.

She took the 30th with a birdie and breezed to win on the 31st when Mrs. Bush trapped her second and holed out with a five, one over par.

The Wilmington golfer's drive bounced into the woods on the 32nd, and Miss Lenczyk had no trouble taking it with a par five.

Mrs. Bush then gave the match away on the 350-yard par four 33rd hole as she three-putted. She tried hard on the 34th with a nice second from behind a tree, but Miss Lenczyk had no trouble matching her par four and retaining the title she won last year at Toronto.

The champion shot a medal score of 146, even par for the 34 holes played, while Mrs. Bush took 148.

Record Crowds Attend Best Local Horse Show

Never before have so many Victorians turned out to see a horse show, and never before has such an excellent horse show been seen here.

It was the Kiwanis Club's first annual international show at the Willows Saturday when close to 5,000 spectators watched leading riders of the Pacific Northwest and some of the finest mounts on the coast in brilliant afternoon and evening performances.

The weather was ideal. Sun shone in the afternoon for the first eight events of the show and for the next eight under the floodlights at night there was only a bit of a nip in the air.

Kiwanis' Club officials are expected to announce later in the week the amount of money raised through the show for the Royal Jubilee Hospital, Queen Alexandra Solarium, Red Cross and their own boys' work projects.

There were several dazzling horses taking part from Washington in specialty events which the crowds gave tremendous applause.

Highly-trained five-gaited animals from below the border perhaps stole the show. The western glamour classes were crowd pleasers, too, with the Americans leading the way. But in the hunter classes, the jumping events, local riders outshone the visitors in the keenest of competitions.

VICTORIAN WINS AGGREGATE

A Victoria equestrian, Carothers Carpenter, and his spirited Orange Pekoe, a former racehorse, won the aggregate trophy with 11 points. Pekoe was second in the lightweight hunter class; first in the $250 hunter stake; second in the handy hunter.

Ross Arden Supreme, a handsome five-gaited stallion owned and ridden by J. Grady Gay, more than lived up to expectations.

Stonewall Classic, owned by A. Clark of Bellingham and ridden by Larry Masterton, Everett, was a close second to Supreme in class.

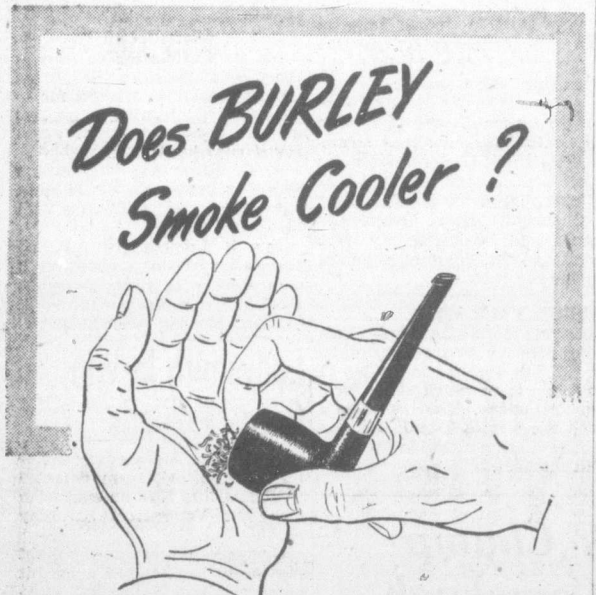

Dr. Rhythm, owned and driven by A. Draper Coale, Seattle, was the top entry in the fine harness class, but competition was close.

Ted Hawkes of Royal Oak rode Gamelin, a former racehorse, to a popular victory in the open jumping class.

Mrs. de Vere Hunt of Duncan, on Flash was second, while Victoria's charming Vearle Leith on Grey Mist was third. Fourth and fifth positions went to Martin Rind, Seattle, on Satan's Holiday, and Miss Elizabeth Oliver, Victoria, on Water Lily.

RESULTS

Other winners were: Children's Riding: 1. Joan Boag, Victoria; 2. Dolores Barclay, Seattle; 3. Heather Whitworth, Victoria. Pleasure Saddle Horse: 1. Miss E. Oliver on Brandywine; 2. Miss M. Masters, Vancouver; 3. Mrs. C. C. Carpenter, Polli, all of Victoria. Western Parade: 1. Grady Gay Supreme, Golden Boy, Seattle; 2. Miss Dorothy Green, Stonewall, Golden Chimes, Seattle; 3. George Porter, Nugget, Victoria.

Portland Sweeps Doubleheader From Hollywood

There's a new skipper at the helm, but Hollywood's Stars are still falling fast.

After two years of indifferent success, Jimmy Dykes resigned as manager of the Coast League seventh-placers Saturday and second baseman Lou Stringer was named to head the club the rest of the season. The Stars lost three more games over the week-end.

Portland's Duane Pilette and Don Johnson checked the Stars,

Oakland	90	67	573
Los Angeles	85	70	548
Portland	77	75	513
Seattle	79	79	493
San Diego	73	85	462
Hollywood	65	91	417
Sacramento	65	93	411

2 to 1 and 1 to 0, yesterday to give the pushing Beavers a sweep of the seven-game series and a good grasp on fourth place.

Hollywood southpaw Joe Krauskas qualified for a hard-look medal, losing the finale despite a one-hit effort.

San Francisco maintained its 1 1/2-game league lead over Oakland by dividing with Sacramento, 3 to 7 and 5 to 3.

Oakland, with Charley Gasaway besting Herb Karpel, edged Seattle, 2 to 1, but lost a chance to gain on the Seals by dropping the second game, 1 to 5, on Hermann Besse's four-hitter.

Los Angeles grabbed a pair from San Diego, 10 to 6 and 4 to 2, taking the series, five to two.

AMSTERDAM SURPRISES

WINNIPEG (CP)—Amsterdam, nine-year-old chestnut gelding owned by E. Johansen of Calgary, upset the dopesters by copping the President's Handicap, feature race of the opening day of Winnipeg's 14-day fall meet. Eight horses ran in the race at seven furlongs.

Fort Garry, owned by the Meadowbrook Stable of Winnipeg, and an odds-on favorite, was nipped in a photo finish at the wire.

WINS JUNIOR GOLF
Hugh Johnston won the junior handicap championship and a possession of the Challoner-Dillabough trophy at the Uplands Golf Club Sunday, defeating Ronnie MacLeod 4 and 2.

Crack Field Forecast For Canadian Open Golf

VANCOUVER (CP)—The promotional drummers today were quickening their beat for the Dominion's biggest golf show, the Canadian Open, to be played at Shaughnessy Heights Club here Sept. 22 to 25.

Plenty of "big names" from the ranks of United States golfers are assured. Further encouragement was given them during the week-end with an announcement by Mayler Avery, local tourney chairman, that Americans would be paid their share of the $10,000 prize money in United States dollars.

Some predictions already are being freely made that the first staging of the big contest in British Columbia will break all gate records since the open's start in 1904. Officials announced that tickets already sold total more than double the entire advance sale for the 1947 open at Toronto's Scarborough Club.

Officials are not too happy about defending champion Bobby Locke's decision not to appear and belting Ben Hogan's apparent lack of interest. However,

Bombers Whip Regina To Create 3-Way Tie

Happiest among those citizens glad to see the end of the heat wave are the football players, who somehow don't relish carrying 20 pounds of personal equipment in 100-degree temperatures.

Well over 100 of them tried it in Hamilton and Toronto Saturday and the effort should have floated both stadia away in pools of good, honest sweat. Instead, there were a couple of well-planned exhibition games, with Toronto Argonauts beating Toronto Beavers Indians, 13 to 8, and Hamilton Wildcats walloping Windsor Rockets, 36 to 3.

The only senior league game was played in comparatively cool weather in Regina, where Winnipeg Blue Bombers edged Regina's Saskatchewan Roughriders, 14 to 13. The victory put all three teams in the Western Canada League in a first-place tie, each with two points after the first round.

The Bombers had to come from behind for their victory on a last-quarter field goal by Don Hiney.

The Regins built up a 7 to 8 lead on a single point punted by Ken Charlton, back in the west after starring with Ottawa Rough Riders, followed by Butch Lee's touchdown which Gabe Patterson converted. The Bombers went ahead on touchdowns by Harry Fitzgibbons and Bob Sandberg, the latter converted by Hiney but Patterson converted Bob Early's major to give Saskatchewan a temporary, 13 to 11 lead.

The official temperature reading was 100 at Toronto where 4,397 fans paid $6,505 for the

Lorne Main Beats Californian For B.C. Junior Title

VANCOUVER (CP)—Lorne Main of Vancouver Sunday successfully defended his British Columbia junior clay courts title by defeating Jerry DeWitt of Vallejo, Calif., 6-3, 6-3, 6-0, in the final round.

Main, Canadian junior singles champion, won the B.C. junior singles title by keeping the second-seeded DeWitt constantly on the run.

DeWitt gained some consolation in the junior men's doubles finals, however, teaming with Portland's Tom McDonald to upset Main and John Dupriest of Tacoma, Wash., 6-4, 2-6, 8-6, 5-7, 6-2.

In the girls' division, 14-year-old Patsy Herd of Portland gained the affection of the crowd of 400 at the Jericho Tennis Club as she swept to singles' triumphs in both the under-18 and under-15 singles finals.

In the junior ladies' bracket she waltzed past Vancouver's Barbara Wood, 6-2, 6-1, and in the girls' final she blitzed Lavern Bennett, Vancouver, 6-1, 6-1.

Locke Fires 68 In Match At Montreal

MONTREAL (CP)—Three up at the end of 13 holes, Bobby Locke and Babe Zaharias faded on the final five holes Saturday to finish all square with Stan Horne and Jules Huot, Montreal pros, in an 18-hole exhibition golf match over the tricky Islesmere course. No extra holes were played.

Locke's steady putting drew rounds of applause from the gallery of close to 2,000. The South African wizard finished with the best score, a four-under-par 68. Didrickson, United States leading woman pro, went around in 77, three more than to took Horne. Huot shot 79.

Olds Wins Another Main Event At Langford Track

Don Olds, smooth-driving pilot from Seattle, was back at the Langford Speedway Saturday night and signaled his return by winning the main event. Taking over the wheel of George Haslam's No. 9 speedster, Olds won the feature which was marked by a couple of restarts.

On the third lap Gar Warren went into a spin and stalled in the centre of the racing strip. Jack Spaulding's car smashed into one of the front wheels and was through for the night. Two laps later Roy White's entry threw a wheel and went out. On the second restart Eddie Koste-niuk moved into first place but went to the pits with engine trouble after three laps. This allowed Olds to go on top and he remained there until the finish, with Dave Cooper pressing all the way to place second. Howie Stanley was third.

George Simpson, driving Harry Greenwood's car, won the time trials, helmet dash and first heat. Stanley and Vern Bruce finished in that order in the helmet dash and the first heat. In the second heat Bruce took top money, followed by Spaulding and Cooper. Cooper was the winner of the third heat and White took the fourth.

Members of the Victoria Motorcycle Club gave a repeat performance of their trick riding.

Pigeon Racing

The Victoria Racing Pigeon Club held its fourth young bird race from Boston Bar, a distance of 135 miles. Fifty-five birds from six lofts took part.

Trio Of Brothers Reunited In City After 47 Years

Victoria seems to have become the reunion centre for trios of long-separated brothers.

Most recent reunion is that of the three Parker brothers, separated 47 years . . . a meeting which followed close on that of the Margison brothers, separated 35 years.

The newest reunion was that of Harry Parker, 69, of 403 Heather Street; Frank Parker, 70, of Edmonton, Alta., and Len Parker, 72, of Toronto.

Harry Parker, a veteran of the Boer War and World War I, who is retired after 25 years with the Bank of Commerce here, last saw his two brothers together in London, Eng., in 1901. For the reunion, Len Parker flew from Toronto to Edmonton to pick up Frank, and then the two journeyed to the B.C. coast to be met by Harry.

Len wrote a comic poem to mark the event.

The other reunion was that of John, Oswald and Rudolph Margison, who were reported last Saturday to have taken their first walk down a Victoria street together in 35 years.

Birth Of A Baby Holds Up Trial

Because one of the main Crown witnesses is not available owing to the fact she gave birth to a baby during the last few days, trial of Richard Brooks, charged with theft of $23, was adjourned to Sept. 13 by Magistrate H. C. Hall in city police court today. The magistrate agreed with application of George F. Gregory to withdraw as defence counsel in the case. Brooks has entered a plea of not guilty.

Reserve Army To Resume Training In September

Thousands of army reserve force personnel will be back "on parade" by mid-September, Ottawa authorities said today.

Frequently described as the "backbone of the Canadian army," they will tackle a new series of lectures and practical demonstrations at local armories. This theoretical phase of their training has been so designed as to be of help to them when they go to camp for annual summer training in the field next year.

Hundreds of active force instructors, attached to reserve units as administrative and training staff, now are on leave after a busy summer putting reserves through their paces at summer camp. They will be on hand to help units launch the new training season.

W. Smith Winner In Eagles' Derby

Members of the Eagles gathered at Brentwood Sunday for their annual salmon derby. The competition attracted 227 entries with W. Smith winning first prize with a 28 pound, 12 ounce catch. W. Pistell was second with a 26 pound, 14 ounce fish, and F. G. Buxton third with a 19 pound, 12 ounce salmon.

Other prizewinners were L. M. McClintick, D. Hoadley, W. Arden, D. Baird, G. Lamont, M. Fenner, F. J. Smith, J. W. Playfair, R. Attwood, F. Rushworth and Bert Higgs.

R. Stephenson was the winner of the boat in the tombola drawing.

Britain's Production Grows, Says Hudson's Bay Governor

Production in Britain has been stepped up considerably since factories reverted to making peace-time articles after concentrating on turning out implements of war, Sir Patrick Ashley Cooper, Governor of the Hudson's Bay Company and director of the Bank of England, told newsmen in an interview Sunday at the Empress Hotel.

The output of British factories now is very close to being 160 per cent above that of 1938, he said. A government-sponsored program for increased productivity set 160 per cent as a goal some time ago, he noted.

The people of Britain see only a small percentage of what they make in their own stores, Sir Patrick said. The keynote of all industry is export. Britain feels now is the time to regain its pre-war markets and to find new ones.

CHECK ON INFLATION

To export on such a large scale, Britain has found it necessary to live under an austerity program. This program, while criticized by some, is helping Sir Stafford Cripps, Chancellor of the Exchequer, to hold a check on inflation, Sir Patrick thought.

Britain's outlook on the future would be bright, if it were not for the uncertainty of the Russian situation.

"The Russian situation overhangs everything," Sir Patrick said. "Of course, Canada and the United States are just as close to it as we are."

Sir Patrick received his formal education at Fettes College; Trinity Hall, Cambridge, and Aberdeen University. He served in World War I with the Royal Field Artillery until he was wounded in 1915. He was then made deputy director of general trench warfare.

From 1919, he was engaged in financial and industrial reorganization. In 1931 he was named to serve as a member of the National Economy Committee and in 1936 was appointed to serve as a member of the Air Ministry Advisory Committee.

He visited Canada regularly in connection with Hudson's Bay Company business until the outbreak of World War II, when he was made director of finance in the Ministry of Supply.

He resigned from this post at the conclusion of the war with Germany and was airborne for Canada on company business on the day Japan surrendered to the Allies.

Sir Patrick sailed the Atlantic this trip aboard the Queen Mary. He arrived in New York about a month ago, spent some time with company officials there, and then flew to Winnipeg to confer with Canadian company executives.

He flew from Winnipeg Saturday, arriving in Vancouver Sunday at 4:30 a.m. rested, and then boarded a plane for Victoria, arriving here at noon.

After meeting his friend, Lieutenant-Governor Charles Banks and Mrs. Banks and conferring with C. N. Chubb, manager of the Hudson's Bay store in Victoria, he again took off for the east.

He will return here in about ten days time.

Overcrowding At Veterans' Hospital Forces New Policy

Some war veterans in Class 6 and 5B who have been cared for at the Victoria Veterans' Hospital may be sent to the George Derby Health and Occupational Centre in Burnaby to ease crowded conditions at the hospital here.

S. H. Okell, assistant district administrator, reports the hospital is running close to capacity now and that the transfer of the older cases, which come under the heading of veterans care, may be necessary to handle active treatment patients in the sub-district.

He said all applications for treatment, including classes 6 and 5B, will continue to be made to the Victoria office. Applicants will be screened before being placed in the local or mainland institutions.

Mr. Okell said special consideration will be given those who wish to remain in Victoria. Residence, family ties and physical condition would be determining factors in carrying out the new procedure, which will be brought into effect as gradually as possible.

The Canadian National Retired Employees' Association will meet in the K. of P. Hall next Friday.

Archie McKinnon No. 1 Citizens, Says R. W. Mayhew

Belief that city-wide support will be given the Archie McKinnon Appreciation Fund, since "Archie is what we might term our No. 1 citizen, because his influence has touched so many young lives," was expressed by Hon. R. W. Mayhew, M.P., today in a letter received with his cheque, at the City Hall, by John Baxter, secretary of the fund.

"No work is so worthwhile as the work among our young, and Archie with his opportunities in the Y.M.C.A. has perhaps the most golden opportunity of all to impress good clean living into the daily life of our boys," said Mr. Mayhew.

Another tribute was that from Harold G. Beall, B.P.E., who was the first physical director in the new Y.M.C.A. building at Victoria from 1911 to 1915. He was succeeded in the post by Mr. McKinnon.

"I have known Archie since he joined the Victoria Y.M.C.A. in 1913, just after he came to Victoria from Scotland," wrote Mr. Beall. "Archie and his brother, Angus, were in the business boys' gym class and he early showed his worth in all the activities of the boys."

"His name is known all across Canada in the Y.M.C.A. and out, as a leader in sports and athletics and of youth," Mr. Beall said.

Suggest Selkirk, Banfield For Park

Preference for the name "Selkirk" for Victoria West Park was voiced by William H. Davies, former alderman in a letter received at City Hall today.

Mr. Davies said though his name had been mentioned he would prefer a name "more in keeping with the district" and suggested Selkirk, since the property was adjacent to the Selkirk Water.

A letter was received from Robert D. Harvey, K.C., in which he supported the move to name the park after Ald. C. F. Banfield.

"The community owes a great debt to men of Alderman Banfield's calibre," Mr. Harvey wrote. "One hears so much criticism these days of men and women who give their services to community effort that I think it is time some recognition is given to those who do accomplish things like the recreation centre."

Dangerous Driving Fine

Edward Stephens was fined $40 and his license was suspended for three months when he pleaded guilty to dangerous driving in the James Bay area on Aug. 14. Constable R. Maitland reported accused's truck snapped off a stop sign at Menzies and Simcoe Streets and six blocks further on collided with a car. Constable Maitland said damage to the other vehicle was about $150 and that the defendant did not stop.

Victoria Singer Enjoying England

"All very exciting" is the way Pamela Newton, young Victoria singer, describes her trip to England earlier this month to attend the Trinity College of Music, London, where she was awarded a one-year scholarship.

Miss Newton was able to accept the scholarship through the efforts of Spencer's Remnants, who raised her fare and traveling expenses through contributions and a concert, and who are still campaigning for funds for the singer's living expenses while studying in Britain.

In a letter to D. M. A. Murray, president of the Remnants, the gifted young lady who thrilled Victoria audiences with her fine voice during the past few years, spoke of a rough crossing on the Ss. Ascania, but states she enjoyed the trip.

Upon her arrival at Liverpool, she was met by press reporters and photographers. She is currently visiting relatives at Christchurch, Hants, before reporting to Trinity College Sept. 13.

She recently sang a selection from "The Messiah" in the Christchurch Congregational Church, and has been featured in an article in the Christchurch Times.

She concluded her letter by thanking Spencer's Remnants who made her trip and studies possible.

3-Month Suspension

A three-month license suspension and a $40 fine was imposed against John Brian Morgan in city police court today when he pleaded guilty to dangerous driving on Quadra Street Sunday. The car he was driving, Magistrate H. C. Hall was told, went over the curb in the 3100 block of Quadra Street and crashed into a telephone pole. The car was extensively damaged.

Community Chest Dollars At Work

News stories in the Victoria papers the other day illustrated the striking preventive work of the Canadian National Institute for the Blind. They also illustrated again the value of the Greater Victoria Community Chest. The C.N.I.B. is another of the agencies financially assisted by the Chest.

The institute financed a mercy trip by air to Los Angeles for a Victoria woman and her 11-week-old daughter who had been threatened with total blindness. They went to see a famous surgeon who operated on the infant's eyes for alleviation of glaucoma, a serious eye affliction. Apparently the operation has proved a success and the child evidently will be spared a lifetime of blindness.

The Canadian National Institute for the Blind is helping with preventive work of this nature all the time. It aids not just those actually blind but also those in danger of becoming blind, which is in line with present-day trends involving every department of human welfare.

In all such cases the Canadian National Institute for the Blind "stands by," prepared to offer advice and make the necessary arrangements. The Community Chest also stands by, prepared to help, so long as the citizens of Greater Victoria are prepared to support the Chest in adequate measure.

When you walk into an office such as that occupied by the Canadian National Institute for the Blind in Victoria and talk with blinded persons who in part comprise the staff, you enter no atmosphere of gloom. You meet with people who in spite of all physical handicaps, are in most cases the embodiment of radiant outlook and good cheer. It is so with Miss Dorothy G. Stark, local representative of the C.N.I.B. in Victoria.

"The Community Chest helps us splendidly with our work," said Miss Stark. "It is our chief means of financial support. We are grateful for its aid, and we are grateful, too, for the co-operative spirit in which its representatives meet with us and seek to realize our problems and needs. One of our most important functions is to teach the newly-blinded person to read and write by touch, and to work with his hands, thus enabling him to take a normal place in society."

There are 113 blind persons in Greater Victoria. The Community Chest dollar helps to assist all such who "sit in darkness." GREATER VICTORIA COMMUNITY CHEST.

New Book On World's Fish Tells About 40,000 Species

WASHINGTON (AP)—The fishiest-sounding fish story of all?

It's the true one, the story of the 40,000 different kinds that make up this fish-filled world of ours.

There are fish that have nasty tempers, fish that can go out for a stroll, fish that are plain, no-account, lazy fish that are so small you can hardly see them, fish so large they'd feel cramped in a trailer truck.

All this is discussed in a new book called "The Ways of Fishes."

It's by Mrs. Edith M. Stern and Dr. Leonard P. Schultz, curator of fishes for the Smithsonian Institution and an authority on the behavior of fish.

"Some fish walk, some fly, some breathe air, some water," says Dr. Schultz.

"There are fishes with eyes divided somewhat like the bifocal lenses of spectacles—the upper part for vision in air, the lower for vision in water."

"There are fishes that burrow like moles, hibernate like bears, fight like tigers."

And that isn't all. Continues Dr. Schultz:

"Some fish are placid, others nervous and easily irritated. Among them are the timid and fearless, the lazy and energetic, the mild and bloodthirsty."

ACT IN SELF-DEFENCE

Many fish are venomous, Dr. Schultz says, but don't stare suspiciously at your goldfish. Fish rarely attack, except in self-defence.

Dr. Schultz went to Bikini to study fish during the atom bomb tests. He came back with the news that beautiful fish may be like beautiful dames. Some of the prettiest are the deadliest.

Tigerfish, he observed, are strikingly beautiful, with bold yellow and black stripes. But they have a series of spines on their backs and fins, and even a prick from these can be painful. A real gash can mean death.

Baby-Snatchers Work In Vancouver?

VANCOUVER (CP)—A baby-boarder who routed a slack-clad woman prowler early Saturday thinks "baby-snatchers" may be at work here.

Mrs. Ella Perrault, who looks after a dozen babies during the daytime, said she was awakened by the barking of her Maltese terrier, and saw a woman prowler running out of the house with a folded blanket under her arm.

She said she thought the woman was after a baby because there was nothing touched in the house. Two babies were asleep upstairs.

Mrs. Perrault thinks the baby was wanted to "sell in the United States for $4,000 to $5,000."

"I believe it had been planned for weeks," she said. "The woman was dressed exactly like my daughter, and she got away in a grey sedan just like my daughter's boy friend's car."

Her daughter was asleep when the incident occurred.

Canadian Bar Association Convention Starts In Montreal

MONTREAL (CP)—Uniformity of law in Canada is expected to be one of the main topics discussed at the 30th annual convention of the Canadian Bar Association, which was opened today.

Indication of this was given last week by W. P. J. O'Meara, assistant under-secretary of state, in his presidential address of the conference of Commissioners on Uniformity of Legislation in Canada at its annual meeting.

Mr. O'Meara said opportunities for attack on the country's national unity could be minimized if "some substantial uniformity of law on matters of common interest in our respective provinces can be achieved."

Premier Duplessis of Quebec, at his weekly press conference last Friday, took exception to Mr. O'Meara's suggestion saying that "uniformity of laws could lead to assimilation of races, to which we are irresistibly and definitely opposed."

After registration of delegates, today's session was taken up with a council meeting and meetings of various executive committees.

DINNER

Tonight, John T. Hackett, M.P. of Montreal, president of the C.B.A., will give a dinner for the delegates.

Tomorrow, the five-day convention will swing into full force. Mr. Hackett will deliver the presidential address. Premier Duplessis will welcome the delegates to Quebec and Mayor Camillien Houde will welcome the association to Montreal.

After reports of various committees have been given, Chief Justice A. T. Vanderbilt of New Jersey will address a luncheon meeting.

Mission Promises Good Delivery With Competitive Prices

MONTREAL (CP)—A 12-man British trade mission, promising good delivery and competitive prices, arrived in Montreal Saturday for a seven-week swing through Canada.

E. J. Gilpin, director of one of Britain's largest manufacturers of bakery and biscuit machinery, said the mission would investigate possibilities of selling such capital equipment and engineering products as bakery, wood and chemical machinery, electrical and heavy engineering machinery, mechanical-handling and transport equipment and edible and mineral oil equipment.

The mission will set up first-hand relations with boards of trade and other industrial bodies in the larger cities of Canada. Gilpin said Britain at present is not interested in building plants in Canada and bringing workers to this country.

"It is too early for that," he said. "We will definitely investigate the possibilities of establishing factories and bringing workers here in the future."

The mission, sponsored by the United Kingdom Board of Trade, left Saturday afternoon and today was in Ottawa. The tour of Canada will extend from Halifax to Vancouver and Victoria.

The only woman in the party is Mrs. K. Gwynn-Jones, secretary.

HERE'S WHERE WE STAND ON NEW-CAR SELLING

General Motors Dealers' "Foursquare Selling Policy" assures you a Fair Deal when you buy a new car

Let's bring this subject right out in the open.

Many conditions still exist which encourage the "gray marketing" of automobiles.

You don't like this — and neither do we.

There's no law against "under the counter" deals — demanding a bonus for early delivery.

There's no law against loading cars with accessories the customer doesn't want or need.

There's no law against selling to buyers who make it their business to resell new cars at inflated prices.

But we don't do it because it's not good business.

All dealers buy cars at clearly established factory prices which with the exception of transportation, are the same, model for model, all over the country. All start on a fair and equal basis — and should therefore sell at these fair and reasonable delivered prices.

So we're making public announcement of our code of fair dealing.

Our foursquare selling policy, simply stated, is this:

1 NO PADDING OF PRICES

We guarantee our delivered prices to conform with the manufacturer's recommendation and to contain nothing but standard charges which, of course, include Sales and Excise Taxes. You receive an itemized bill of sale. All prices are an "Open Book" — they are available to you and we sell at these listed figures.

2 NO LOADING OF UNWANTED ACCESSORIES

All cars are offered with factory-installed accessories only and prices are figured to cover these. We pledge ourselves to add no "extras" except those each customer orders — and to avoid using "extras" to increase the delivered price.

We wish to express our sincere appreciation to our loyal customers and friends for their patience in awaiting their turn for delivery of new General Motors cars.

Although the popularity of General Motors cars is unprecedented, and the supply is lagging far behind the demand, we are doing our utmost to be fair and equitable in their distribution.

3 TRADE-INS DESIRED— BUT NOT COMPULSORY

We will take your order for future delivery, without requiring a trade-in. However, we have many valued used-car customers who also depend upon us to supply them with automobiles. For this reason we would like to have your trade-in, and we'll give you a fair and reasonable allowance for it.

4 NO COLLUSION

While we cannot prevent our customers from reselling new cars, we will not knowingly be a party to such transactions. Our only interest is to deliver new cars to bona fide customers.

We present this platform because we believe it's good business to keep our customers informed.

It's a platform that gives you a fair deal when you buy a new car — exactly the same kind of a deal and treatment you got before the war.

If you wish additional information, it will gladly be supplied by any dealer whose name is signed to this announcement.

'Inside Job' Drama Of Glamour, Gunplay

Ann Rutherford, cousin of the famous tragedian, Richard Mansfield, and a motion picture actress with an impressive list of screen credits, is co-starred with Preston Foster and Alan Curtis in Universal's "Inside Job," drama of glamour and gunplay, now at the Plaza Theatre.

The glamor is supplied by Miss Rutherford, and the gunplay is shared by two masculine stars of the picture, Jean Yarbrough directed and produced "Inside Job." In the competent supporting cast are Joe Sawyer, Joan Fulton and Milburn Stone.

DOMINION THEATRE

"The Strawberry Roan," Columbia's Gene Autry starer now playing at the Dominion Theatre, will end its engagement there tonight. The outdoor drama, filmed in Cinécolor, also stars Champion in the title role, and features Gloria Henry, Jack Holt, Dick Jones and Pat Buttram. The Gene Autry production was directed by John English and produced by Armand Schaefer. Dwight Cummins and Dorothy Yost wrote the screen play.

Betty Grable Sings Gershwin Songs

Eleven heretofore unpublished and unheard songs by the late George Gershwin would be more than enough excuse for any musical. But when Betty Grable and Dick Haymes are assigned to sing them, and the songs themselves are woven into the fabric of one of the most refreshingly delightful screen stories of the year—who could ask for anything more?

Not this reviewer, for the result—Twentieth Century-Fox's new Technicolor musical, "The Shocking Miss Pilgrim"—provides audiences at the Mark Theatre with joyous entertainment.

Talent, Music, Color Make Warner Hit

Warner Bros., the film studio that gave picture audiences their first taste of lavish musicals and that so recently rang the bell with "Night and Day," carries on the tradition of "42nd Street," "Yankee Doodle Dandy," and the scores of others in their latest Technicolor musical extravaganza, "The Time, The Place and the Girl," at the Oak Bay Theatre.

Chester Morris In Mystery Film

"Boston Blackie and the Law," newest of Columbia's mystery film series featuring Chester Morris in the title role, opens today at the Rio Theatre. Trudy Marshall has the feminine lead, and the cast also includes Constance Dowling, Richard Lane, George E. Stone, Frank Sully and Warren Ashe. Harry J. Essex's original screenplay, based upon the character created by Jack Boyle, was directed by D. Ross Lederman.

Screwball Team In New Mirthquake

Abbott and Costello's latest mirthquake, "The Noose Hangs High," opens today at the Atlas Theatre.

The Eagle Lion ninety-minute laughing jag tosses $50,000 into the laps of the screwball scream team and from there on it's splitting sides and aching stomachs as the comedians try to recover the cash after they have dumped it into a sample envelope of face powder.

ROYAL THEATRE

The combination of Clark Gable and Lana Turner in a motion picture is an advance guarantee of dramatic and emotional fireworks, and "Homecoming," the new M-G-M offering now being shown at the Royal Theatre, gives these electric stars every opportunity in the heart-moving story of a doctor whose entire outlook on life is changed when he falls in love with the nurse who stands by him in his greatest crisis.

Gable plays the doctor, Ulysses Johnson, who leaves his adoring wife, Anne Baxter, and a successful practice behind when he goes overseas with a medical corps at the outbreak of World War II. His attitude that the war is just another chance for him to come back with a lot of medals undergoes a drastic change under the influence of "Snapshot" McCall (Miss Turner), attractive nurse.

CAPITOL THEATRE

Charles Bickford currently is involved in the most curious casting turnabout he has ever faced in his Hollywood career. It all goes back to the time he played Father Peyramale in "The Song of Bernadette."

As the strong-minded, but kindly priest in Franz Werfel's prize-winning picture, Bickford played "opposite" Jennifer Jones' Sister Bernadette, the ethereal little Lourdes' peasant girl who became a saint.

Now, in "Duel in the Sun," David O. Selznick's epic Technicolor drama, Bickford is again appearing with Miss Jones. But, instead of the sanctified character she played in "The Song of Bernadette," Miss Jones is playing a spitfire, and Bickford, is one of the many men in the picture who fall in love with her. "Duel" is a Selznick International Picture, currently at the Capitol Theatre.

ODEON THEATRE

Stewart Granger plays a ruthless, arrogant young hall steward in "Blanche Fury," a murder story that evolves about the mansion of an aristocratic English family. Valerie Hobson plays the title role.

You Asked about the

NATIONAL HOUSING ACT
A regular series of questions and answers on house financing and construction.

Q. Do the building standards governing construction of a house financed under the National Housing Act call for a minimum distance between the house and a detached garage?

A. Yes. The distance between a house and a detached garage should be not less than six feet, clear of all projections.

Q. Is it correct that Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation is distributing nails for use by house-builders?

A. Yes, but only as an emergency measure. This is what happened: Arrangements were made earlier in the summer by the Department of Reconstruction and Supply—through the office of the Steel Controller—to increase production of nails by diverting certain quantities of steel rod into the manufacture of steel wire nails. This small increase in output is being distributed by Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation. It is designed only to help relieve an emergency and is not intended to meet total requirements of any individual. It was created as a temporary measure to assist non-priority residential builders until such time as they are able to obtain nails through regular distribution channels. And a builder must be able to prove that he is unable to get nails from his usual sources when he applies to Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation for an emergency supply. In other words, he must exhaust every other possibility before asking for help under this temporary measure.

Q. Is it true that a part of any National Housing Act loan made to a builder building for sale is withheld until each house is sold?

A. Yes, it is. Fifteen per cent. of the total amount of the loan is held back until each house is sold to a purchaser who is satisfactory to Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation and the lending institution concerned. Then, once the purchaser has signed an agreement to assume the N.H.A. mortgage, the builder is released from his covenant. This release, however, will not be granted if the builder has already taken back any second mortgage or other security for the purchase price.

Q. When a joint loan is made under the National Housing Act, I understand that a part of the money is advanced by Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation and a part by an approved lending institution. But just what percentage does each contribute?

A. Twenty-five per cent. of the money borrowed is furnished by Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation and 75 per cent. by the approved lending institution concerned. However, as has been pointed out before, joint loans are made by and through the lending institution. Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation receives the loan application only after it has been approved by the lending institution.

Gams Like This () —or This ()

I JUST GOTTA ADMIT... I'm now a convert, to the suit... with the ballerina skirt. Jaunty is the word that best suits them, & I like 'em better... the longer the hem. It's the SWING of the thing that gives 'em that air... the swish... the rhythm... the leggy flair. And I like the way each dainty shoe, trips along... playing peek-a-boo. Gals are so made, either pips or drips, to oomph 'em around on swivel-hips. But I s'pose the real reason they appeal to men, they're so doggone completely... femine. There's mystery tripping along the street, provocative looking... or rather discrete. And the jackets too... above the turn-tum (these I'm told are called "pebblum"). Are cheeky too... a similar flair, makes me wish I wrote Ads... for Ladies' Wear. Instead of dull stuff, about furniture, it's hard to sling... the same allure. Except THIS "sweet," in its tailored clothes, it's glamored in turquoise and "beauty-rose." It HASN'T 3 cushions as all others do, it seems more interesting... with only two. And the rocking chair... that different flair, come whistle at it... exclusive and rare.

BUT BACK AGAIN... to the ballerina, that opens and shuts like a concertina. I hope it forever keeps a-flowing, 'n' it's even frillier... "when your slip is showing." I sed to the G.F. "with a shape like yours, how 'bout a skirt that sweeps the floors???" These gals from the States, that I've seen, sure look like a million... in their girdle. "O.K." she replied, "ballerina I'll go, but jar loose, brother... gimme more dough." Guess it all adds up, with fannies or slims, they no longer have legs... they've gone back to limbs. And to many they say, "his heavenly bliss, specially those with gams... LIKE THIS () or THIS ()."

ESKIMOS USE HIDES OF WALRUS FOR DOG HARNESS

A single tusk of a good-sized walrus is likely to weigh from 10 to 12 pounds. The tusk is made of ivory and brings a high price on the market. Usually it stays white longer than the ivory of an elephant tusk.

Under the skin of a walrus is a layer of blubber which may be from one to two inches thick. This fat does much to keep the animal warm in its cold Arctic homeland. It also supplies oil which is used by Eskimos, and which also is sold in parts of Europe and North America. In some years more than 2,000,000 gallons of walrus oil have been obtained.

Eskimos eat the flesh of the walrus and cut the hide into strips which are employed to harness their dogs. The hide can be tanned and turned into a tough leather. At some leather goods stores you may be offered bags made of walrus leather.

Thick, strong whiskers grow on the cheeks of a walrus, and we might speak of them as "sideburns." They help to give the big fellow a queer appearance, but he would be queer enough without them.

In past times it was fairly common for a herd of two or three thousand walruses to be seen by sailors in the Arctic. In one case a careful estimate placed the number in a herd at 7,000. Nowadays a herd of more than a hundred is rare.

With their large flippers working well, walruses are excellent swimmers. On land they are awkward in their movements, but they go ashore a great deal. They are air-breathing animals, and like to rest on ice or land.

When a herd swims ashore, the first animals to arrive take places as near the water as possible. A section of the shore is rimmed, at length, with a closely-packed line. Those who come in late have a hard task getting a place, and there may be a good deal of shoving and barking.

The walrus is a rare animal at zoos. One reason for this is its high cost, and another reason is its big appetite. The shellfish on which it likes to feed are expensive.

Men on a whaling vessel once captured a young walrus and made it a pet. They fed it with blubber, salt pork and pea soup. It seemed to like the soup very much.
